We do not eat deer around here, because the local firemen eat them all up in the winter. They are about 75% done with tearing down the old Central Greenwich Fire Station, so once that is done, they will build a new fire station and move the temporary Central Station back from across the street from the Boy's Club to downtown, so we get to once again see the firemen more visible in the downtown area. I used to know somebody that bred Dalmatians in Bloomington, Indiana; if they ever needed one for the new Fire House. His family also owned the Limestone Quarry there, if they wanted to build the new firehouse out of Limestone, which is very expensive. I think the Limestone in the new Peterson addition at the Greenwich Library is also from Indiana. Basically in Indiana instead of seeing skinny blond haired blue eye people like one does out here, one sees bit fat obese blond haired blue eye people, so I guess they eat more food out there, except for the kids that make and drive Subaru Cars, Sedans, SUVs, Crossovers, Wagons | Subaru of America . Thomson Electronics out there used to make RCA televisions, but I think the Asians put them out of business. Like Illinois, they also have a lot of corn for ethanol, and it is a big state; so people do not feel too crowded in. More than likely they still have the steel mills in Gary, Indiana; so possibly they also know to make construction steel, if one happens to be building something, if you get my drift. However, the Limestone for the new Ralph Lauren store on Greenwich Avenue came from China, so possibly Chinese steel and limestone is cheaper on the coasts than the inland of America, where it would have to be transported from. They told me they aged the Limestone at the new Ralph Lauren store by rubbing it with Soy Sauce. The people who built the new Ralph Lauren store were from Virginia Beach, Virginia. There is the name and web site of the contractor on lower Greenwich Avenue at the construction site, but I can not remember it right now. I will now make cigarettes. CIO

<888> 05/28/13 Tuesday 3:55 P.M. Since Microsoft has offices at 6th Avenue and 42nd street in Manhattan; Farmington, Connecticut, and I think upstate New York in Syracuse, New York; they obviously do not consider this area a prime target for marketing their product line. They do seem to spend a lot of money advertising on television networks that a limited group of people watch. I suppose all of them have their main presence through the internet, so when one chats with people about the product in this area, they take one for a computer person; which most people in this area prefer to ignore. Greenwich, Connecticut is suppose to have some wealthy people, but I think they are more focused on Wall Street than high tech, and more than likely they know Wall Street pretty well living in this neck of the woods. In other words, they know how to read financial statements and look at the larger picture versus the viewpoint in the limited advertising. Still personal computers is what I have done for about 23 years, but I never seemed to make any money off of it, since I do not have any product or service to sell; and I just know how to use the systems. The wholesale computer business in Asia seems to have prices cut to the bone, so there is not much use in trying to compete with them, unless one wants to live on a bowl of rice a day. We do have expensive real estate in this area, and quite a few people I know make money off of the local real estate which is expensive and heavily taxed, so the town of Greenwich benefits from the taxes, and they can just barely afford to maintain me in my minimal living accommodations.

<888> 05/26/13 Sunday 9:15 P.M. A person that I chatted with today was having a problem with McAfee virus scan bringing up the blue screen after 98% scan. I suggested left clicking on My Computer, then right clicking on the C: drive "Properties", and then selecting "Tools", and then clicking on "Error-Checking" and doing a scan of the hard drive to see if there are any bad sectors on the hard drive. If one should have a virus, there are also free virus removal tools for specific viruses here Computer Virus Attacks, Information, News, Security, Detection and Removal | McAfee , but one would have to know which of the viruses that one might have. Also, if one should ever get about the worst virus called a "Boot Sector Virus", these tips are available <http://www.wikihow.com/Remove-a-Boot-Sector-Virus> . If one needs to do a Low Level Format to remove everything from one's hard drive, be sure to back up any important files first. How Do I Low-Level Format a SATA or ATA (IDE) Hard Drive? . DiscWizard | Seagate has a utility that writes zeros to the hard drive either quick or the long tedious process. I usually do a 1% zero write, since a boot sector virus usually lies at the beginning or the end of the hard drive, which a 1% would not get rid of it at the beginning but not at the end of the hard drive. Of course then one would have to do a new operating install or a good backup restore. Also if one has Linux partitions on one's hard drive, it is the only way I now how to get rid of them. CIO

They still have to dig the foundation and put up the steel work for the southern half of the structure. There are suppose to be deluxe apartments and stores in the structure, when it is finished, but one will probably hear the nearby railroad at that location. Where the old Talbot's store used to be across the street from St. Mary's, they are putting in Vince | Official Store and a The Official Site | Marmot Clothing and Equipment stores. <888> 05/22/13 Wednesday 12:25 A.M. I ate to tell the Irish mechanics from Michigan www.ford.com that the Scottish still know how to walk, and most of the Dutch I know here can afford transportation, if you get my drift. When I lived in Wellesley, Massachusetts, I use to pick up and drop a friend at Edsel Ford's house where he lived when he went to Babson College which I drove by every day coming and going from www.polaroid.com . It was the scenic route. I can not remember who that friend was, but I am sure somebody out there in the wood work knows. I once saw somebody with the same look as Henry Ford driving a Burgundy Jaguar with Connecticut license plate "ROYAL" parking along side a friend of mine's car at the Newport Rhode Island Hotels | Historic Hotel Viking during the summer season, but a lot of Irish folk look the same, so nobody ever knows one from the other. Even Henry Ford Senior looked like John D. Rockefeller III, so a lot of people confuse people with other people. People use to think I looked like Prince Charles, when I was skinny, and they were always asking me how my mother was doing whom is a very private person that most people do not know. CIO

<888> 05/21/13 Tuesday 11:45 P.M. I put some of my summer footwear on top in front bottom of the right living room closet. I still have a new pair of Reeboks in the left living closet, I only wore few times last summer. When I woke up briefly early this morning, I ate 4 ounces of almonds. The Brooks Brothers raincoat still fits me, but I do not have the liner. I also have a Ralph Lauren medium weight dark green jacket like John Kerry use to wear on Presidential campaigns in New Hampshire in the winter. I put my other light weight jacket that I have plenty of out in the right living room closet, and I stored my heavier winter coats on the top shelf of the right living room closet and the left closet. I still have a new pair of insulated farmer's overalls that I never wore that would sort of look funky on a dress down night. They are at the extreme left of the left living room closet. When I receive the four new pairs of pants tomorrow, I will be out of closet space. I still have some old pairs of pants that fit me, when I was waist 38 and 40 inches and 30 length in the bottom drawer of the mahogany bureau in the bedroom. I saved them in case I ever manage to lose weight in the future. The only sure fire way I know to lose weight is go down to Key West and be homeless for six months or more and starve it off, but when one gets darkly tanned and skinny, big fat people from up north try to do you in, and I do not speak Spanish anyway, but I have four to five years of high school French and six years of Latin, so I can make some sense of Spanish which is also a Romantic language besides Italian and French. Of course some times when skinny darkly tanned people become desperate in south Florida, they can end up on a chain gang, if they do not know what they are doing. For travelers with a car, the best free place I found to stay for free in my car was the Key West International airport in Key West, but everyone knew me down there, so they let me get away with it. Before the road to Key West at the end of the Florida Turnpike in Homestead, Florida, there is a very deluxe rest area, were one can also park overnight. If one pulls off a so called deserted side road in Florida, one never knows what one will run into from gators to inbred Red Necks and all sorts of other dangerous wild life, not to mention sleeping one car in Florida in hot weather is too hot and sweaty, because you have to keep the windows up because of all of the insects. However, one will not freeze to death probably down there in the winter. Up north in camper friendly area up Route 7 North of Danbury, Connecticut; there are state parks; but people from California I have chatted with here have told me, there are wild bears in the Connecticut State Parks not to mention Lyme Disease. The best free safe place I use to know in the winter to sleep when it was cold was the red leather couch in the basement of the www.yale.edu Law School. One can usually sneak in the locked outside door behind a student, but after a short time, everyone observes you on campus. I used to see Ronald Reagan's son sitting on the U.S. mail box at the Yale campus trying to get attention, before he dropped out. If he had every bothered to chat with me, I might have introduced him to a few people I once knew at www.harvard.edu , but it is a lot colder in Boston. The best free place on Cape Cod is the Poors House in Borne that is owned by the Episcopal Archdiocese of Cambridge, Massachusetts, and it not named after poor people but the Standard and Poors family that donated it. It is an old New England waterfront home with lots of U.S. Government surplus food. The best free place in www.nantucket.net before it gets busy is the uninsulated dorms for the Nantucket MA Hotel - White Elephant help before the help shows up, but after that it is sort of difficult to find a free place, so one has to go to work for minimal wages to rent a bare crappy room just to survive, and once it gets cold and all of the tourists leave, they kick you off the Island, and one is left homeless in America with no place to go. For formal dress up in Greenwich, Connecticut, they still have men's formal wear rental at Coppola Tuxedos - Greenwich, CT , but if you can not afford a tuxedo in this town, there is no point dressing up. The proper Yacht Club formal evening attire is khakis or other colorful pants with a blue Blazer other sports coat with tie optional. The richer they are in Greenwich, the more they dress down. In Kennebunkport, Maine of the Old Guard still wear thirty year old pairs of khakis with holes in them. CIO

<888> 05/21/13 Tuesday 9:45 P.M. The NOAA Weather Center in Upton, New York has this web page NOAA National Weather Service Upton, New York and one can contact a real person during 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. working hours at 1-631-924-2578. I left them a message about the NOAA Weather Radio reception problem. CIO

<888> 05/21/13 Tuesday 9:20 P.M. I ate two 3 ounce Purdue chicken cutlets, 12 ounces of mashed potatoes with Smart Balance Spread and extra virgin olive oil, steamed broccoli crowns and baby carrots cut lengthwise into quarters with extra virgin olive oil and Smart Balance spread, and a 12 ounce glass of Schweppes Ginger Ale, and a cup of green tea with Sweet and Low sweetener and Borden's lemon juice. I called up www.geico.com at 1-800-42-GEICO to lobby them to get the NOAA weather station working in Upton, Long Island, New York. Instead they tried to sell me an Umbrella policy and transferred me to Melville, Long Island, New York, which told me on my GEICO automobile policy an Umbrella policy raising it to one million dollars would be $160 a year, but the catch was that one would need an Apartment renter's policy which would be another $150 to $200 a year which in total would be about $360 a year, which I can not afford for additional coverage, but for people with more money, it is probably worth having. The good news is the Melville, Long Island, New GEICO agent that I spoke to has a sister that use to work at the Upton, New York weather station, and he told me as far as he knows, the NOAA weather broadcast works. He said he would look into it. Basically with newer technology, maybe people do not rely upon it, but I always found it useful to have the broadcasts wake me up in an emergency weather situation. However, we still do have the reverse 911 phone calls in this area, but they do not give those out for sudden severe storms, only major weather events. I chatted with an older relative who told me Public Television was more geared towards Senior Citizens. On a local note, the Senior Citizens and Visitors whom frequently sit on the benches in front of the northwest corner of the Senior and Arts Center have not been able to, since there seems to be a nest of bothersome bumble bees in those bushes that buzz everyone. Bumble bees do have the colors of a friend's family racing colors, but I still think someone in higher authority should look into getting rid of the Bumble Bees at that location. When one of my friend use to use black and yellow worry beads in Greece, I used black and blue worry beads in Greece, so maybe that is my families' colors. What happens here on the south shore of Connecticut on warmer weather holidays when nobody is around and everyone is away is that a group of sailors from Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club sail over here and explore around. My viewpoint is that since a lot of the North Shore Blue Bloods lived here during World War II instead of their established residents out on the North Shore of Long Island, they might have invested in properties out here, so possibly they still own something out here, they do not pay much attention to. CIO

<888> 05/21/13 Tuesday 6:15 P.M. I called up the Cos Cob Radio Shack at 1-203-661-2212 Radio Shack Store Locator , and I told them I did not think that NOAA Weather Radio works in this area, and I explained the weather station in Upton, Long Island, New York had been shut down, and the only other beacon for this area is from Rockefeller Center which does not work. They told me they have an $80 NOAA weather radio, but they did not know whether or not, it worked in this area. I also told them about:

I know a lot of the local Greenwich High School computer geeks check out that store for bargains, and I also know they make most excellent beta testers, since they might have relatives that work for www.ibm.com which everyone around here pretends does not exist. CIO

<888> 05/21/13 Tuesday 5:30 P.M. We had a false fire alarm drill. I picked up the mail. I chatted with neighbors about the price of tea in China. The order with tracking of Track your package or shipment with FedEx Tracking on the order for two Amazon.com: U.S. Nylon US Flag 3X5 ft- Embroidered Stars: Patio, Lawn & Garden for $3.25 each and $10.98 shipping for $17.48 total arrived. I hung one of the new flags over the left hallway bookcase, and I am saving the other one for the family house in Kennebunkport, Maine as a spare since, we have a larger expensive one up there already. I put the more expensive 4 foot by 6 foot Polyester U.S. flag American Flag 4ft x 6ft Valley Forge Brank Koralex II over the right bookcase. I got it on January 12, 2012, when I was flush with Christmas money. I still have the 5 foot by 8 foot cotton 49 star U.S.A. flag that I bought from Mrs. Garland at the New Canaan visiting nurse thrift shop for $5 right before George H.W. Bush's inaugural which I attended in a $5 navy blue tuxedo from their thrift shop. It shows how times have changed, but nobody can afford to drive to New Canaan anymore to look for bargains. Thus I have set up the interior decoration for Memorial Day. Also today, I visited Brooks Brothers www.brooksbrothers.com on Greenwich Avenue, and I discussed fashion with them. I have noticed recently that the winners of the Kentucky Derby and Peter Brant when showing up in public were wearing Brooks Brother's raincoats. I think I might still have one, but I do not think it would fit me, and it would be about size 40, but it might be a London Fog. They told me that Brooks Brothers bomber jackets now cost $700, but they are only available in cold weather. I still have the size 40 one that I bought for half price for $250 at the their New York store in February 1982, but mine is a New Zealand bombers jacket with something written in Chinese in it. I bought a second one that ended up at one of my sister's houses and the World War replica in size 44 for my now diseased father which is probably still down in Florida with his widow. I stopped by Green and Tonic, Revive with Real Food and chatted about healthy eating. I chatted with a few locals. I found a set of www.ford.com keys in front of the Senior and the Arts center that I turned into the Greenwich Police Station. I toured the new Hermès North America - United States - Greenwich - Hermès Greenwich . They have European riding saddles there, but they do not know what they cost. I called up an equestrian friend and told them about their saddles. He was busy getting horse shoes at a ferrier. I stopped by <http://www.greenwichhardware.com/index.php> , and I gave them a business briefing. I toured www.cvs.com . I chatted with an Internet Trading Office worker. I chatted with a visitor from France with his family who is going to visit the new National September 11 Memorial & Museum | World Trade Center Memorial tomorrow. I told him about the The Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Consulat général de France à New York , but he did not know English, and I do not speak French that well anymore. I mentioned that Site officiel Peugeot international - Motion & Emotion had not been selling cars in America for 30 years, since I was homeless at their dealership in Manhattan, when I came off www.nantucket.net 29.5 years ago. Baccarat Fine Crystal Jewelry, Lighting & Gifts for Special Occasions - US Official Site also has a small boutique on Greenwich Avenue. Of course, somewhere in town, they probably sell a lot of French wine, but since I am not allowed to drink alcohol anymore, I am not sure I know where those places are. I also chatted with someone from Palm Beach, Florida who was enjoying the ambience of Greenwich Avenue. CIO

<888> 05/21/13 Tuesday 11:30 A.M. I was inspected, and I passed inspection. I was told to keep an eye out for fire safety. I chatted with a relative. <888> 05/21/13 Tuesday 9:55 A.M. I threw out the garbage. I chatted with neighbors. I guess the reason that I held the job briefly at CBS was that when www.polaroid.com was a profitable company, they paid over a million dollars a minute to advertise on the major media networks, but once they went bankrupt in 1975, there was no interest from the media networks. Since Polaroid had some blue chip investors in this area, more than likely some of the investors still have a bit of money, if you get my drift. Most of the major rich people from the media networks seemed to have lived out around Manhasset, New York - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia out on the North Shore of Long Island or in that area. CIO

<888> 05/21/13 Tuesday 9:05 A.M. I will now shower and clean up. I have a 10:45 A.M. apartment inspection this morning by the The Housing Authority of Greenwich inspector. I have lived in their apartment building at 71 Vinci Drive for 24.5 years, since I moved from 700 Steamboat Road, where I lived for 4.5 years, but my family first moved into this area June 1962, so I think by any reasonable standard, I would be considered a long term resident of Greenwich, Connecticut and the area. I do not publish our former exclusive back country addresses, since when we live there, they were less than a $100,000, and today they are the location of multimillion dollar McMansions of the Carriage Trade. I have maintained the modern version of the Design Legends: Billy Baldwin : Architectural Digest decorating as a computer geek might perceive it. Since my only paying job in the distant area of Manhattan was with www.cbs.com for three months during Watergate, I feel it is important to continue to maintain communications with Manhattan, although nobody from there gives me direct communications out here. I just see a lot of strangers sitting in www.starbucks.com on Greenwich Avenue. Perhaps after having lived in exile in Greenwich, Connecticut for the last 29 years after I came off www.nantucket.net, I have become very myopic, and I just do not recognize anyone anymore. CIO

<888> 05/17/13 Friday 5:35 P.M. I went outside, and I threw out the garbage. I walked around the building. I chatted with a neighbor about the price of tea in China. I picked up the mail. The www.time.com magazine arrived and another fund raising brochure from the Crystal Cathedral Ministries : Welcome out in California. I have been eating a lot of almonds from California recently, they might have some other food out there, if you get my drift. I once met two men in Key West, Florida in February 1982, one was Steven Salisbury from Salisbury, Connecticut, and he looked like George H.W. Bush who was vice president at the time and his roommate at the time was somebody that looked like Ronald Reagan that raked the gravel in front of the Fogarty House all day long observing what goes on. They lived in an old Air Steam trailer by the Boca Chica Naval Station, and they had lived there since World War II. People with Air Steam trailers frequently try to move them out of harm's way, if a hurricane should occur. Key West is suppose to have a lot of famous people that look like other people, so one can figure out the real people are probably more private while the imposters try to profiteer off looking like other people. <888> 05/17/13 Friday 12:45 P.M. I will keep one of the U.S.A. flags for the apartment, and I will take the other one to Kennebunkport, Maine. Now I will have the option to display two U.S.A. flags in the hallway. However, recently I felt it was important to display the various items in the bookcases, so I am not currently displaying any big flags in the hallway. The day prince Henry was in town, it was a perfectly normal day downtown, and the only unusual thing I noticed downtown was I saw someone that looked like an Arab prince come out of the Senior and the Arts center with his tall blond girl friend, and they got in the front seat of a Rolls Royce limousine painted black and silver with New York license plates and drove away. I see so many rich people in Greenwich, Connecticut all of the time, I have learned not to bother them, so as not to scare them away, since I feel they are good for the local economy. Of course a lot of the Old Guard rich people drive old www.buick.com sedans, so one never knows whom has money and whom does not. When I flew down to Ronald Regan's first inaugural in January 1981 from Kennedy airport on a $40 ticket on a Braniff airlines flight, the only other passenger on the jet was the Saudi Arabian oil minister, but I did not talk to him. I changed from my blue jeans from Greenwich Village the night before where I was bought three double Vodkas on the rocks to my three piece Brooks Brother's business suit that I had bought for $100 in 1968 which fit me, when I weighed a 145 pounds at the time. My father diseased father Louis Dale Scott was a Chemical Engineer, so he worked on projects overseas including the Middle East. Since Louis Dale Scott was not Jewish, he was allowed to work in Saudi Arabia, but he worked on a lot of other projects worldwide, and I would just sit here in Connecticut to see what came back on the rebound, which I got to be very good at. I once chatted with the son of the Saudi Arabian ambassador to the United Nations about computers at Tuscon's bar here in Greenwich, and another person told me was Saudi Arabian, and he worked at the perfume counter at Saks Fifth Avenue in Stamford, Connecticut, and when I lived in Key West in the winter of 1978, there was a Saudi Arabian who was always on a prayer rug at Louie's patio on the waterfront just south of the Casa Marina where John Bolton and myself hung out with Mel Fisher's children. Fred Von Mierers knew the niece of the Shah of Iran, so that is about the limit of my dealings with people from the Middle East. I have also visited Turkey in spring of 1972 with George Cary and my www.lfc.edu college group, and I think Turkey is considered part of the Middle East. I have been trying for years to have them put one in the Board of Education parking lot downtown, but the poor impoverished town of Greenwich, Connecticut can not afford it. They would rather people use the bathroom at Starbuck or late at night go in the parks. CIO

<888> 05/13/13 Monday 1:30 A.M. There was no automobile traffic on Round Hill Road today, when I drove up it. There were signs for an auction at the Round Hill Community Church , but I am not sure or not if it is already over. There was one out of shape jogger and a couple of dozen bicycle riders. There were still too many people driving too fast on North Street when I drove down it. There were a lot of people using the playing fields at the Greenwich High School which are suppose to contaminated with PCPs. The Greenwich Country Club tulips in the front circle are in full bloom and they are a purplish or dark pink color. There were a lot of cars there. I was told the older people around Country Clubs do not like Cell Phones, and they think the private members only members and their guests should only network amongst themselves while they are on club property. Maybe they read my notes about the USNS Kingsport (T-AG-164) - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia being off shore in this area eves dropping on communications. The tulips are pretty much gone on Greenwich Avenue, but back country is cooler, so they are out later there. The weather for the Charity Polo Match at Conyers Farm this Wednesday 7-Day Forecast for Latitude 41.07°N and Longitude 73.65°W is calling for a high of 68 degrees Fahrenheit and a 20% chance of rain, which if they get rain, it might favor the British

Land Rover www.landrover.com team. I suppose, we might have some press in the area with those satellite trucks also. New York has some 40 million people living within a hundred miles of it, so if even if a small fraction of a percentage of people in the area show up in this area, it can be very busy and crowded. It is not like England, where one can shut down the town for the Queen. New Yorkers have to work on a week day to keep the City going. Whatever, the case I suppose since Peter Brant is a Canadian resident, he probably has some wealthy influential Canadian friends. I happen to live almost across the street from the small non commercial Personal Banking - Advice you can bank on - RBC Royal Bank office that nobody even knows exist in this area. I do not know if they are even still there, so many people come and go so fast in this area anymore. I do not use the Greenwich Library Greenwich Library: Welcome much anymore, so I do not know if any visitors are using their facilities or not. Greenwich Avenue as usual is the usual hodge podge of people. I am a bit tired, so I will now shut down the primary work computer, and I will head out to bed soon. I have a 10:30 A.M. appointment this Thursday, so I have to try to stay on a daytime schedule if at all possible. CIO

<888> 05/13/13 Monday 12:40 A.M. I ate the rest of the Blue Diamond wasabi and soy sauce almonds. Since most the medical community in Greenwich seems to be Jewish, they will not provide Medicaid treatment to protestants that need dental work, so I guess the protestant minority here has no influence anymore amongst the community. They forget that protestants might have paid for and built the universities which they attended to gain their medical expertise. I guess one could always claim refugee status and try to survive off refugee benefits in Canada, if one did not freeze to death. I chatted with an out of town security official. CIO

<888> 05/12/13 Sunday 11:30 P.M. I did not use my car today, but I drove around with a friend in his mint condition nine year old Williamsburg Blue BMW convertible with the top up with 68,000 miles that he bought recently for $9,500. When he was up in Cape Cod recently, he got sea gull poop on the fabric roof which would not come off, since it is fabric. I suggested that he take it to the Darien spray car wash at I think just off exit 12 off I-95, and they have those machines that you put in quarters and spray the car with high pressure spray. I do not think they are opened 24 hours anymore, but they might be. I did notice two large tents when we drove by Conyers Farms Polo field today, and I saw a lot of men in black suits making preparations, so it must be a formal affair. CIO

<888> 05/12/13 Sunday 11:20 P.M. If there are any Canadian residents in the lower 48 United States or elsewhere in the world whom need assistance, there is a toll free telephone number to call up in Canada to communicate. It is 1-613-996-8885, and they will accept collect calls. They speak English and French at the telephone number. For any British people whom need to chat with the British Embassy in Washington D.C., their telephone number is 1-202-588-6500, but they have a very complicated telephone system, so I usually press 0 and hope somebody answers, if they are not out walking the dogs. Of course, if somebody actually knows somebody in a foreign country, with the cheaper telephone rates today, it might be easier to call them up directly. I guess all of the foreigners I met over the years were all imposters, because none of them ever communicated back with me. I guess once one becomes poor and disabled and sedentary, the foreign community loses interest in you, particularly since old family companies like www.polaroid.com are no longer around to pay a million dollars a minute to advertise on major media stations, which I always considered a waste, since the product did not work very well. Much could be said about an unnamed modern company which I will not mention for legal purposes. CIO

<888> 05/08/13 Wednesday 4:35 P.M. I chatted with a relative. I ate a roast beef and Swiss cheese sandwich on a Kaiser roll with Hellmann's olive oil mayonnaise and a dill pickle spear and Lays wavy potato chips and a 12 ounce glass of Schweppes Ginger Ale. When I make a sandwich, I use three ounces of sliced cheese and three ounce of sliced meat. CIO

<888> 05/08/13 Wednesday 3:20 P.M. I chatted with a neighbor. I threw out the garbage. I went downtown to the Stop and Shop. I bought two six packs of Stop and Shop English muffins for .99 each six pack, Stop and Shop deli sliced premium ham for $4.99 a pound for $4.99, Stop and Shop deli sliced premium Swiss cheese for $6.99 a pound for $6.85, a 14 ounce Marie Callendar chicken filet dinner for $2, and a Marie Callendar meat loaf dinner for $2 and 95 cents can return for $19.50 total. I found a discarded green round wind machine that I retrieved. It is about 22 inches in diameter. I then went by CVS, and I picked up a prescription. I bought a 16 ounce bag of Blue Diamond Wabasi and soy sauce almonds for $4.99. The CF Collection just south of CVS has closed. I then went by the Chase Bank at 19 West Putnam Avenue. I then went by the Putnam Shell at 401 West Putnam Avenue, and I bought $10.01 of self service premium gasoline for $4.299 a gallon with a dime a gallon off with my Stop and Shop card for 2.329 gallons at odometer reading of 72071 miles for 29.8 miles driven in mostly local traffic since Saturday April 20, 2013 for 12.796 miles per gallon in mostly local traffic. I then returned home. I put away my purchases. I moved the Lasko box fan out of the living room window in front of the Frigidaire air conditioner to along side the Sony television, and I installed a power strip with a switch on the brass and glass table beneath the window with the Wind Machine fan connected to it. For some reason the round switch for the Wind Machine is on its rear side in the center of the fan, which is why I installed the power strip to turn it on and off. CIO

<888> 05/08/13 Wednesday 7:00 A.M. I took the Acer 19 inch LCD monitor off the IBM ThinkCentre along side the Ethan Allen recliner, and I put a hard Duck place mat and one inch thick telephone book on top of the control panel of the Asus Netbook, and I placed the Acer 19 inch LCD monitor behind the Asus Netbook on the place mat telephone book, so it can be viewed with the Asus Netbook screen opened, and I plugged in the VGA cable to the Asus Netbook VGA port, and the power to the second from the right control panel switch, so now the Asus Netbook and Acer 19 inch LCD monitor work in clone mode, and it is easier to view the Asus Netbook content, when it is stationed at home. Since the Acer 19 inch LCD monitor blocks part of the lower right side of the Haier 32 inch HDTV, I raised up the Haier 32 inch HDTV 3.5 inches with two Encyclopedia Britannicas. I will put the new AOC 22 inch LED monitor on the IBM ThinkCentre along side the Ethan Allen recliners with the Acer 22 inch LCD monitor. All in a day's work tweaking the apartment. CIO

<888> 05/07/13 Tuesday 3:05 P.M. I chatted with a friend whose Grandfather worked for Queen Victoria. His grandfather use to keep the temperature in his house in Gladstone, New Jersey at 45 degrees Fahrenheit in the winter, so I guess the British like colder temperatures. It might be raining for the rest of the week, but the British are used to rain, if it should rain on Sunday at the Charity Polo event. <888> 05/07/13 Tuesday 12:20 P.M. When I investigated the suspicious group of people out on Long Island, I noticed one particular piece of information, and it was a long overdue library book from The General Society of Mechanics & Tradesmen of the City of New York . Back in the old days, when I explored the Chelsea area of Manhattan where there were some British seamen, I noticed there was a Masonic Temple - New York City and Masonic Temple - New York City near the Y.M.C.A. on West 23rd street. More than likely somebody has been working behind the scenes in Manhattan while the celebrities try to take all of the credit. One the head detectives in that neighborhood had the last name Churchill. When I lived in the Bush Rockefeller neighborhood here in Greenwich, Connecticut when George H.W. Bush was the head of the www.cia.gov , there were too many people doing tree work for an obscure back country neighborhood in a remote outpost in Connecticut, that he must have had a lot of undercover people working the neighborhood, like over a 100 tree people. The former second selectman of Greenwich also lived in that neighborhood as did the Head of Sports Illustrated and God Only Knows who else. CIO

<888> 05/07/13 Tuesday 11:05 A.M. When I was in Paradise Island in February 1982, I met Richard Mercy who was vacationing there from 21 Eaton Square, London England which is near Buckingham Palace. He looked a bit like Prince Charles and he was his friend with the last name Romsey also from England. He wrote me care of General Delivery, Key West, Florida when I returned to Florida. The stamp on the envelope was interesting in that it was an old time Victorian Picture of "The Beggar's Banquet", which was interesting since I was pretty much starving then until I met John Bolton who had $1,500 cash money from his bail, when he was let out of jail in Key West for dealing marijuana, since his father was a State Department employee and his mother also worked for the Secretary of State's law firm in Manhattan whose son is now the district attorney in Manhattan. I did not use drugs or drink alcohol while I was in Key West, but I spent a lot of time walking around observing. CIO

<888> 05/07/13 Tuesday 10:35 A.M. I went outside, and I walked around the outside of the building twice. The garden in the back of the building is well maintained. I chatted with

I moved the two black steel and orange nylon folding outdoor Rio chairs that I bought at CVS a year and a half ago for $7.50 each for 75% off, and I put them in the rear trunk of the Audi to have them available to sit outside downtown or on the pier on Steamboat Road or at Grass Island, which are about the only places, I can afford to travel to. They are new with the tags on and have never been used. Thus they are $30 chairs each. CIO

<888> 05/07/13 Tuesday 9:30 A.M. I drank a cup of coffee with sweet and low sweetener and milk. With Prince Henry showing up at Conyers Farm in Greenwich, Connecticut this Sunday for the charity Polo event for the African Country Lesotho - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia, we probably have a lot of Anglophile types showing up in this area ahead of his entourage, so we probably should be on our best behavior this week and stay home and mind our own business while the visitors explore our tiny little community. He is not the first British Royal to have shown up in this area. Sarah Ferguson's step father lived at Conyers Farm, so she had paid private visits here, and the Duke of Windsor dedicated a statue at the Electrolux factory in Old Greenwich, Connecticut in the 1920s. There will probably be an entourage of State Department Security and British Security with his visit, and they probably will do things their own way, if you get my drift. Also one of the oldest golf trophies in America dedicated to Queen Victoria used to be in the lobby of the Greenwich Country Club, and it was donated by the Spaulding Sports Company. A senior British resident that I know here that I have not seen in a couple of years told me years ago, I am suppose to keep doing what I do, and I am not suppose to know what goes on, and I am suppose to get a hair cut, if I can afford it, and I am suppose to stay focused. He was British and worked for Swiss air. That is all of the directions that I ever go. I probably will not be getting a hair cut anytime soon, since during one of my appearances around the British in Paradise Island in the Bahamas in February 1978, I had long blond hair down to my waist, so the British are used to perceiving me with long hair which is not too long today by their standards. Queen Elizabeth's granddaughter Zara Phillips also has a store on Greenwich Avenue just south of Saks Fifth Avenue. The Haircut Place - Old Greenwich Connecticut is also owned by John Hilton who is also British, but he has so much money that he will not cut my hair himself, and he has someone from Barcelona, Spain cut my hair. However a haircut there, the last I knew was $25 and with a $5 tip and $10 round trip gasoline to Old Greenwich, it costs me about $40 to get my hair cut. If I wait until I got to Kennebunkport, Maine on June 11, 2013, I can get it cut at the barber salon next to the Hannaford Grocery store for about $15 and $5 tip, but it might be a little bit long by then. The last time I got my hair cut in Old Greenwich was Saturday October 27, 2012 just before Hurricane Sandy, so I came in with a high wind. I think I have visited Old Greenwich once since then around January 2013. Of course the barber shop on lower Greenwich Avenue will cut my hair for the same price with out paying for the gasoline to go to Old Greenwich, but I like to have a chance to visit the beach, when I am over there, so I generally go on a sunny day, when I am on a day schedule. <888> 05/06/13 Monday 10:25 A.M. I have been beta testing the beta on the IBM ThinkCentre in front of the mahogany bureau. It is a lot faster than my primary work computer. For some reason my primary work computer after I restore a clean backup slows down within two week. I have never used a beta long enough to know if the same thing might happen. Of course my McAfee Internet Security program on the primary work computer slows it down a bit, versus the beta with Microsoft security. I threw out the garbage. I waved at neighbors. They have taken away one of the two insulation and ceiling tile trailers, so perhaps they are almost done with the building. I picked up a copy of the The Greenwich Senior Center "Lantern" newsletter for the month of May 2013. There is nothing that I really need in terms of computer hardware. I am pretty much stocked up on everything I need. I could waste some money by driving around more, but I have been on a night schedule a lot recently, and there is no point in driving around the deserted night roads of Greenwich, Connecticut. The beta machine works just fine, and if I needed to print out from it, I could always boot the Windows 7 partition and print out on the TrendNet USB printer server to the Lexmark E238 laser printer. I do not print out much anymore, except my receipts; and my Scott's notes every four months. I keep receipts in case anyone questions the source of anything in my apartment. I chatted with a relative. I have the primary Dell Latitude D410 laptop configured with Windows 8.1 beta build 9385 on the second partition. The settings work on a new install. However, after I installed the Office 2013 demo, the System Restore backup quit working. I installed Windows 8.1 beta build 9385 on the second partition on the IBM ThinkCentre beta machine in front of the mahogany bureau, and then I restored the Windows 7 backup without selecting the formatting and repartitioning option that I just made to have product activation working on the first Windows 7 partition. I then repaired the boot manager with Windows 7 DVD repair option, which put Windows 8.1 back in the Windows 7 boot manager, but to get Windows 8.1 to work, one has to boot the Windows 8.1 beta build 9374 DVD and select "Repair" and "other options" select "additional" and then select "repair boot manager" and then select "Windows 8", which gets both operating systems working. I will now configure the beta partition. CIO

I am now installing the Windows updates. I will then install Windows 8.1 beta build 9385 on a second partition and configure it. I will first make a backup of the first Windows 7 partition, so I have a good backup to restore when product activation comes up at the Windows 8.1 beta install. I showered, and I cleaned up. It feels good to be cleaned up after two days. Beta testing is a process of a lot of tedious routines which I know how to do. I actually do not do much with the beta machines after they are configured, but only work with them when I have the time. CIO

<888> 05/05/13 Sunday 6:10 A.M. I deleted the Windows 8.1 beta build 9385 partition on the IBM ThinkCentre beta machine in front of the mahogany bureau. <888> 05/03/13 Friday 8:15 P.M. On the new beta, System Restore backup does not work, but the www.cnn.com web site no longer crashes the web browser. Possibly the problems are caused by the fact that I installed it as an update over the previous beta. CIO

<888> 05/03/13 Friday 7:55 P.M. I picked up the mail. I got my new www.time.com magazine, which I do not have much time to read anymore. I chatted with a local walker about the price of tea in China. I ate a bowl of pineapple chunks. I finished installing the Windows 7 updates on the Win 7 and Win 8.1 IBM ThinkCentre beta computer in front of the mahogany bureau. In Windows 8.1 build 9385, the Office 2013 Preview Updates now install. Because I did an update as opposed to a new install, I did not have to install the Microsoft Net 3.5 framework with the method mentioned earlier in my notes. The TrendNet Router USB printer port still does not work on it, when it works with Windows 8. As mentioned before the Settings page which works on previous betas does not work. When I repaired the boot manager after Windows 7 restore, I had to use the Windows 7 Boot Repair first, but the second step of using the Windows 8.1 build 9385 boot repair did not work, and I had to use build 9374. I have been awake 24 hours with a 4 hour nap. I feel like I am on a marathon drive up north from Key West to Nantucket. However, this time of year, it can still be cold way out in Nantucket, so even if it is hot down south, you might catch cold with your thinned out blood way up in Nantucket. Nobody communicates with me but other old timers whom are not interested in computers. I guess with all of the www.ibm.com people around here over the years, the general population has learned to ignore computer people for better or worse. The new beta that I downloaded also came in Russian and Polish, if anyone is interested. In the North Country it is colder much longer than it is warmer, so people generally maintain their inside activity in the warmer months, and do not even bother getting use to the warmer weather which is gone very quickly. <888> 05/03/13 Friday 4:35 P.M. I have the Windows 7 partition activated on the IBM ThinkCentre beta machine with Windows 8.1 beta build 9385 on a second partition. I am now installing about 135 Windows 7 Updates. All is part of my normal beta activity on this beta. I also have repaired the boot manager, so both partitions boot. I was not able to install the Windows 8.1 9385 on the primary Dell Latitude D410 laptop and an upgrade to build 9374, so I will leave 9374 on it, since this does not seem to be a major beta upgrade. For some odd reason a UTC? Microsoft Certified Technician called me up, and when I asked him where he was from, he claimed UTC? was out of London, but he was evasive as to where he was actually located, and he hung up, and he sounded like he was from India, so maybe one of Microsoft's Tech Reps tampered with this beta trying to make money. The last time they called, they claimed they were from Arizona. It seems sort of strange that they would bother a beta tester for over 20 years that they have never paid any attention to in the past. Maybe they are misinformed in India, or the His Highness the Aga Khan's 76th Birthday - Mowlana Hazar Imam's 76th Birthday - December 13, 2012 Salgirah Khushiali Mubarak! has some of his agents bothering me trying to use my air conditioning for free. <888> 05/03/13 Friday 3:35 P.M. For some reason the Paragon restore of the Windows 7 partition on the IBM ThinkCentre beta machine in front of the mahogany bureau did not restore Windows 7 with product activation working, so I am now restoring the Windows 7 backup that I know works. However, I will then have to repair the boot manager by the method mentioned earlier in my notes using the Windows 7 DVD and the Windows 8 DVD repair options. I will then have to install the updates, since the backup although recent was of an older backup about two years old, which means 128 updates. Beta testing is not for the faint of heart. Also for Windows 8.1 beta 9385 installed as an update over beta 9374, the Settings Page does not work. Of course it came from Russia, so they might have tampered with it. CIO

I booted Windows 8.1 beta build 9374 on the IBM ThinkCentre by the mahogany bureau. I installed Windows 8.1 beta 9385 as an upgrade which installed just fine without having to reconfigure the beta partition. However, the Windows 7 primary partition came up with product activation, and I am now restoring it with a recent Paragon backup that I made after the last beta installation. The only thing is, I do not remember if it also has the earlier Windows 8.1 beta build 9374 on it or not, but I will soon find out. I chatted with a friend. I finished eating the bag of almonds. CIO

<888> 05/03/13 Friday 12:50 P.M. I chatted with two relatives. I tried to unzip the Windows 8.1 beta 9385, and it would not unzip, but the www.winzip.com program although it would not unzip it, was able to burn it unzipped to DVD. I made two copies. CIO

I then went by the Chase Bank at 19 West Putnam Avenue. I then went by the Wells Fargo Bank at Havemayer Place, and I paid my rent to the Greenwich Housing Authority. I then went by CVS on Greenwich Avenue. I then returned home, and I chatted with a neighbor. I brought up my groceries with my little folding cart. I put away the groceries. I turned on the living room air conditioner, with the Lasko box fan to blow around the air and no apartment lights except minimal light. The lights put out three to four degrees of heat in the warmer period. <888> 05/02/13 Thursday 6:00 A.M. Meckler Media of Westport, Connecticut's www.internet.com is now a search engine, if you know what to search for. For example a lot of wealthy so called smart people want to send their children to college at www.yale.edu, but if one looks at Registered sex offenders in New Haven, Connecticut - crimes listed, registry-based, living in this city, they have 445 registered sex offenders and nearby Bridgeport, Connecticut Registered sex offenders in Bridgeport, Connecticut - crimes listed, registry-based, living in this city has 292 registered sex offenders, so www.yale.edu might not be the safest place for young college students. Cambridge, Massachusetts where www.harvard.edu is has 12 registered sex offenders Registered sex offenders in Cambridge, Massachusetts - crimes listed, registry-based, living in this city and nearby Boston Registered sex offenders in Boston, Massachusetts - crimes listed, registry-based, living in this city has 236 sex offenders. Thus the Ivy League might not be so Ivy covered. Nantucket www.nantucket.net which is 80% women on a year round basis only has 2 sex offenders Registered sex offenders in Nantucket, Massachusetts - crimes listed, registry-based, living in this city . I suppose at a rural college like the University of Illinois <http://illinois.edu/> , one would be safer, but they have 97 registered sex offenders Registered sex offenders in Champaign, Illinois - crimes listed, registry-based, living in this city , and over nearby in the Big Apple, they claim they have only three registered sex offenders Registered sex offenders in Manhattan, New York - crimes listed, registry-based, living in this city , so from that statistic, it is hard to tell how accurate the figures might be. <888> 05/02/13 Thursday 4:25 A.M. I was mistaken Windows 8.1 beta does have USB printer support. I tried it with my Epson C30 inkjet printer, and it installed plug and play. One of the two black ink cartridges is empty. I can buy one or two here Inkjet Cartridges for Epson WorkForce 30 Printer for $7.95 each, but the other cartridges might be gone soon too. The printer only cost me $35 with new ink cartridges, so it is basically a throw away printer. I never used it anyway except for printing out test pages, so possibly the cartridges just dried up. <888> 06/30/13 Sunday 12:30 A.M. When I went to www.lfc.edu from 1968 to 1972 to study economics, Jim Warburg here in Greenwich wrote me a recommendation to a Mr. Douglas in Lake Forest who had been Franklin Delano Roosevelt's Secretary of the Air Force, so I ended up spending quite a bit time around O'Hare airport observing not to mention a lot of $50 flights to anywhere in the country, when nobody was interested in air travel. Back in the winters of 1970 and 1971, when it was minus 20 degrees Fahrenheit in Chicago, I discovered it was in the 90 degrees Fahrenheit in Tobago, but when one got back to Chicago with a dark tan, everyone thought I was a new Puerto Rican student on campus. In the summer of 1972, I went to a wedding at a group of private islands north of Sauté St. Marie, and although I was suppose to photograph the wedding, I was not allowed to take pictures at the last minute, because Howard Hughes was in the church. I could never find that group of private islands, but they were called something like "Deboreau". Each cabin on a separate island had a water cooler filled with Corby's whisky which people drank in abundance. CIO

<888> 06/29/13 Saturday 11:50 P.M. When I use to work as a pot scrubber dishwasher for many years, it was frequently over 130 degrees Fahrenheit next to the hot cast iron stoves in restaurants. The chefs got to drink www.perrier.com which was suppose to be good for avoiding heat, but all I got was ice water. I just drank 10 ounces of punch and ginger ale. Of course, back in the winter 1981 or 1982, when I took the train out to Connecticut from Manhattan to Darien, Connecticut; because there was no train running to New Canaan, I walked with a friend in minus 20 degrees Fahrenheit weather from the Darien, Connecticut train station to a family apartment next to the New Canaan police station. There were no taxis available, and dozens of cars mostly Land Rovers passed us, but none of them gave us a ride hitchhiking. Thus I pretty much made up my mind living in more remote parts of Connecticut without essential services was for the birds, and I enjoy living in the more populated area of Greenwich, Connecticut which has more essential services although one has less privacy. Of course, when I was in Wyoming in October 1978, it was minus 20 degrees Fahrenheit. In Manhattan in February 1982, it was minus 26 degrees Fahrenheit, when my roommate whom worked for a former Secretary of State had me leave the apartment, because her son was moving in, and I met someone in a bar from Hollywood, Florida that put me up in his apartment over an Episcopal Church on East 52nd Street between 2nd and 1st Avenues. As I recall there was lots of heat from the midtown steam system like Fred's old apartment at 420 East 49th street. At Languedoc Bistro a Nantucket Restaurant and Inn. Serving French cuisine on Nantucket for over 30 Years , a lot of the help was from the Stowe Mountain Resort - Vermont Ski and Golf Vacations - Dining, Lodging, Shopping, Spa and Fun ski patrol, where on top of the mountain it is minus 40 degrees Fahrenheit. Thus here on the edge of the tropics in

<888> 06/20/13 Thursday 11:00 A.M. I went to bed at 9:30 P.M., and I woke up at 9:30 A.M.. I ate breakfast of oatmeal with sugar, milk, and sliced banana and blue berries, and a blue berry muffin and watered down orange juice with vitamins and supplements, and a cup of coffee with Splenda sweetener and milk. I will now shower and clean up. I was just reminded that down in the Caribbean where water is scarce, the motto is "In the Land of Sun and Fun, We Don't Flush after Number 1." I was last in the Caribbean in the fall of 1972, when I changed planes in Puerto Rico, and I spent time with a college roommate in St. Thomas, and I visited St. Johns. Of course technically Key West is also part of the Caribbean. CIO

<888> 06/19/13 Wednesday 8:20 P.M. I ate cheese and crackers and watered down orange juice, and I watched the evening news. <888> 06/19/13 Wednesday 4:30 P.M. I went out with a relative, and my relative got a lobster roll for $9.99 at Port Lobster. We then went by the Kennebunkport post office. We then drove along the Kennebunk beach, and we sat out at the east end of the west beach. I was told by another relative, the parking permit for out of town residents at the Kennebunk beach costs $100 at the Kennebunk Town Hall. We then went by Port Lobster, and my relative got a package of crab meat for $12.99. We then went by my relative's house. We then drove along the waterfront in Kennebunkport. We went by Bradbury's and we got some milk. We then went by Sanborn's and we got the last of their fish. We then went back by Port Lobster, and we got some more fish. We then returned to my relative's house. Time Warner Cable was at my relative's house putting the new cable underground, since they had repaired the cable a little over a week ago, when it was damaged by the snow plow this past winter. They also said the signal was stronger, since they put in a heavier cable, so they disconnected the signal amplifier off the system in the basement. That took several hours. Also while we were out three yard people cut the brush on the north side of the house to lawn level leaving the wild daisies. I ate lunch of a turkey, ham, and cheese sandwich with Hellmann's mayonnaise on Arnold Healthnut bread with wavy potato chips and a glass of filtered water and a cup of coffee with sugar and milk. I watered the bushes in front and back on and on the deck, and also the grass where the underground cable was installed. I ran a dishwashing load and emptied the dishwasher. I also did a load of white wash and drier cycle. CIO

<888> 06/07/13 Friday 4:25 A.M. I sent this message to CBSNews.com Feedback .

I worked at CBS news at the broadcast center from April 1973 through June 1973 during Watergate as clerk typist. After that period I met James Edward Eldert from Syracuse, New York whose grandfather was Richard Nixon's neighbor in Key Biscayne, and his godfather was E. Howard Hunt. He was my neighbor in the summers in Nantucket through 1977, and we knew each other in Key West during the winter of 1977 and 1978. He ended up in Malibu, California after that until about 10 years ago, when I guess he moved to Miami. If one searches Google for "James Eldert Images", eight Miami Police booking photos show up, so he must have hit hard times, or some group came after him. He use to be very private in California, and when visiting him, I saw a lot of Howard Hughes' people. What is curious is that, when I knew him in Key West, he had CBS stationary in his apartment. Maybe he worked for you at that time. He had a very good ear for music, and was a radio DJ, when I visited him in Santa Cruz, California broadcasting to the www.army.mil base at Fort Ord where Omar Bradley was stationed. On what happened to me is on my web site at "http://mikelouisscott.com/" and "http://mikelouisscottcom.cv.siteprotect.net/" Jim Eldert when he was younger worked in Queen Elizabeth II's horse stables at Sandringham, and he knew a lot of important people, because he worked for Jacob Javitts while in D.C.. I have a good working office in my public housing, and my mother has been a Bush neighbor in Kennebunkport since 1978, and we lived around them here in Greenwich, Connecticut since 1962. I even built a garage apartment out in Plandome Manor in 1982 for a year where Bill Paley lived. It seems some people still think I am with CBS. Mike Scott CIO

<888> 06/07/13 Friday 3:15 A.M. Back in 1977, the only way for poor immigrant labor from South Florida to make money up north in the summer was to go to www.nantucket.net and to open Sea Scallops for $50 a five gallon bucket of opened sea scallops. Alas, they no longer have the ice house on the wharf in Nantucket, so no Sea Scallop boats come there, but I think they work out of New Bedford which has ice houses on the wharf. With Sea Scallops costing $17.99 a pound at the A&P Fresh, somebody must be making money off of them. CIO

<888> 06/07/13 Friday 1:45 A.M. When I was coming out of Key West in the winter of 1979 on my way back to Daytona, Florida with J.S.B., I stopped by the Pan Am Clipper Club VIP Lounge at the Miami airport, and I changed into my Brooks Brothers three piece wool suit, so I could tour Miami properly. When I returned to my car, I remember I had left my flight bag in the Pan Am VIP lounge, so I quickly parked to retrieve it. As I was walking back up the airport corridor a large African American police officer named Buggs tackled me and smashed my head against the hard floor for over five minutes and then arrested me. He told me I had parked illegally, and I had noticed he wanted to give the legal parking place to a good looking African American woman who was behind me. In the Miami jail full of Haitian refugees, I had access to pay phone, so I called up Charlie Daniels at the Daniel Construction in Greenville, South Carolina where I had worked, and I told him what had happened. The next morning I was released, and I took a public bus to the Miami airport, and I was able to find J.S.B. who had moved the old yellow Subaru to another parking place. The police officer had told me when he arrested me, he thought my friend was mentally retarded, which I can assure you was not the case. I returned to Daytona to starve for the rest of the winter at 125 pounds my current weight then, and I never returned to Miami again except to fly through it in February 1982 on my way down to Key West, Florida on my last trip there. Thus it would seem those large African American police officers in Miami do not like people with my look even when properly dressed, so I would advise all of my friends and associates to avoid South Florida. Also when I was mugged in Manhattan about 20 years ago by someone with a 15 inch gravity knife, the individual claimed he had just brought up a boat from Key West. Thus it would seem to me, so called South Florida like New York City have a certain criminal element. In Key West while I was there, A.R. III was a young artist down there, and he had been a neighbor of mine in back country Greenwich. J.S.B.'s father was a State Department employee stationed in Libya and Thailand as a software engineer. His mother was Cyrus Vance's head of word processing at his law firm at 57th street and Madison Avenue across the street from the www.ibm.com building after he was secretary of state. Also while I was in Key West, O.W. the daughter from IBM was also down there. I had been at her younger sister's deb party, and I also had met her when she weighed 90 pounds on New Years Eve 1974 in Greenwich Village, since she was a friend of J.B. from Indiana who worked at the Spring Street restaurant and the Daly's Dandelion restaurant. At the Daly's Dandelion restaurant one of the most frequent customers was S.H. who was Ernest Hemingway's nephew. S.H. had graduated from school in Switzerland and went on to work at the Metropolitan Museum where I spent a lot of time walking around, when I lived in Manhattan. J.B. from Indiana had a roommate from Stonington, Connecticut; and they both had worked for C.B.S., and his roommate's uncle was the head of neurology at the Sloan Kettering Hospital nearby in Manhattan. CIO

<888> 06/07/13 Friday 12:50 A.M. I called up 1-703-482-0623 Contact CIA — Central Intelligence Agency and left them a message about James Eldert based on what I know. CIO

<888> 06/06/13 Thursday 11:35 P.M. I woke up at 3 P.M., when the Microsoft Tech person from Calcutta, India called me up. I tried to explain to the person that I was tired, and I finally convinced them to call back later. I woke up at 8:30 P.M.. I chatted with a friend and a relative. The Microsoft Tech person from Calcutta, India called up again saying they could fix my computer. They told me to go to Remote Support, Desktop Sharing, Online Meetings: ShowMyPC which installed a program that permitted them to take over my computer which took me to another web site. They then transferred me to a tech person that told me that my computer was old and slow which I already knew. However, the tech person installed a startup command "cc" in my startup folder that caused my computer to shut down every time I booted up. I did a safe boot and removed the "cc" command, and I also disabled the ShowmyPC program in the startup tab, when I ran "msconfig". Thus I would say it is safe to say the people calling up saying they are from Microsoft and Calcutta, India are probably con artists trying to corrupt people's computers. CIO <888> 06/06/13 Thursday 12:50 P.M. I chatted with a neighbor. I threw out the garbage. I went downtown to CVS, and I picked up two prescriptions. I went to my 10 A.M. appointment. I then went downtown, and I sat out briefly; and I chatted with a town employee. I then went by the Stop and Shop. I bought a 12 ounce generic honey for $2.25, a damaged 48 ounce container of Quaker Old Fashioned Oatmeal for $2.49, buy one get one free of 12 ounce Purdue cutlets for $3.99 both, two 24 ounce packages of Simply Mashed mashed potatoes for $2.50 each, two prepared two chicken leg and two chicken thigh with two scoops of mashed potatoes dinners for $2.99 each with each having a dollar off manager's coupon for $1.99 each, and bananas for .79 a pound for $1.44 for $19.15 total. I then returned home to the solitude of my quiet peaceful apartment at Chez di Vinci. I chatted with a relative whom explained to me that people in California and Florida frequently get hooked on recreational drugs and do bizarre things. I guess much the same happens around here in the Big City. I will now shut down the primary work computer, and I will go to bed soon.

One was at the Gotham Hotel, and the other was across the street at the St. Regis Hotel Roof, and I recall at S.W.'s and S.P.'s debutant party at the St. Regis roof, we were served roast beef for dinner. In the Connecticut Medical telephone call this evening, they asked all sorts of personal questions including questions about diet, but they did not inquire as to whether one ate meat or not, so I guess in Connecticut, meat in one's diet is not an important part of overall health care. <888> 06/05/13 Wednesday 8:05 A.M. I weighed myself before getting in the shower last evening, and I now weight 230.4 pounds. My family also stayed at the Tudor Hotel on East 42nd Street across the way from Tutor City near the United Nations, since Chemstrand had company apartments there. CIO

<888> 06/05/13 Wednesday 8:00 A.M. I chatted with a friend. I used to tell people that my office in Manhattan was a pay phone at the Luxury New York City Hotels Midtown Manhattan – The Waldorf Astoria New York . I once stayed at the Waldorf Towers New York Luxury hotel | Waldorf Towers | Manhattan Boutique Hotel with my family around

Christmas Time in the 1960s. I also stayed there in January 1973 with H.H.H.. I think I stayed in main part of the hotel around 1981, when somebody from England put me up. I have had cocktails there, but I do not recall if I ever ate there or not. I used to see President Ford and President Reagan coming and going there. Around January 1973, I saw somebody that looked like the Duke of Windsor entering the Waldorf Towers from a private automobile while I was having a cigarette on St. Bartholomew's church terrace. However, Billy Baldwin looked like the Duke of Windsor, so maybe it was him. I use to walk frequently through the lobby of the Waldorf to warm up on cold winter's days. Also they have very good restrooms there, but one is suppose to tip a dollar, and the restroom attendant dusts off one's jacket. I have to go out around 8:15 A.M. to pay my rent when the Wells Fargo Bank opens on Havemayer Place at 9 A.M.. I have been up since 7:30 P.M. this past evening, so I am getting a bit tired. CIO

<888> 06/05/13 Wednesday 6:40 A.M. I made 92 Premier Lights 100 MM filter Peter Stokkebye Turkish pipe tobacco cigarettes while watching Series 6 Episode 4 of "Monarch of the Glen". I also took the new five pound bag of Peter Stokkebye Turkish pipe tobacco, and I packed it into 22 quart mason jars, so I now have 23 quart mason jars of the product. CIO

<888> 06/05/13 Wednesday 4:30 A.M. In the 1960s, I recall eating at Luchow's with my family, and when I first moved to the Yorkville neighborhood in January 1973, I also recall eating at the Philly steak place take out on East 86th Street and The Heidelberg Restaurant, New York City in the same neighborhood, and nearby years later I recall going to Eileen's for drinks, but I do not recall if I ate there or not. At one time while I was in Manhattan, the Ninth Circle pub on West 9th Street which was one of the oldest steak houses in Manhattan did serve food also, and I recall eating there too and a restaurant bar nearby called Julius. There was also a diner just north of there on Seventh Avenue, where I would eat. There was also another pub nearby Pete's Tavern, where I ate burgers, and besides Churchill's, Frys, and Melons on Third Avenue, there was another pub called Allen's that served $2 to $3 burgers, where I also ate. CIO

<888> 06/05/13 Wednesday 3:55 A.M. Back during the oil embargo of the winter of 1974, I recall driving into Manhattan and eating dinner at the River Club on East 52nd Street and the East River with G.G.C.'s parents and his cousin from New Mexico. I recall drinking a bit of Southern Comfort that evening. G.G.C. was not around at the time. CIO

<888> 06/05/13 Wednesday 3:30 A.M. As a teenager in Greenwich, Connecticut; I went to a few dinner dances at the Colony Club on Park Avenue, and I recall eating roast beef. The Barclay dance classes use to take us into Manhattan to meet New York City teenagers. I also ate cheese burgers for $4 a few times at Shriffs on Fifth Avenue and 50th Street around 1973. I also have eaten at McDonalds on Thirds Avenue at around East 55th street. I have also eaten at McDonalds on West 4th Street in Greenwich Village. I think I once ate Lums when it was on Third Avenue about the same location as McDonalds. I have eaten at Uncle Charlie's restaurant on Third Avenue and about 38th street. I think I have eaten at Coney Island Franks at West 8th street and 6th Avenue. I have eaten at the pineapple milkshake place at Broadway and West 72nd Street. I have eaten at a Museum of Modern Art art opening. There was a Deli just south of Daly's at First Avenue and 58th street where I have gotten sandwiches to go. I have eaten at T.G.I.F. on First Avenue and 62nd Street. I have eaten at a Hungarian Goulash place at about 2nd Avenue and 85th street where Goulash was $2. I have eaten bagels from the Bagel Place at 72nd Street and Third Avenue. I have eaten from the bakery at East 49th street and 2nd Avenue. I used to shop at Gristedes just east of 2nd Avenue on East 49th street and the A&P at 2nd Avenue and 52nd Street. I have also shopped at the A&P at 8th Avenue and West 20th Street. I have shopped at Zabars on Broadway around 77th street and Balduccis at Sixth Avenue and West 9th Street and the Polish bakery on West 72nd Street and West End Avenue. I have eaten at the Hagen Daz ice cream store just south of Christopher Street and Seventh Avenue. I have eaten at a restaurant on Second Avenue around 47th Street. I have eaten at Sign of the Dove at Third Avenue and 66th Street. I once ate at a famous after theatre cafe just west of Broadway and 47th street. On one of my last trips into Manhattan, I ate at the Boat House Restaurant in Central Park and the Chinese restaurant on Park Avenue just south of Grand Central Station, where I had eaten years before. I used to buy coffee beans on Christopher Street at McNulty's. I have eaten at McSorely's Old Ale House just east of Astor Place around 2nd Avenue and East 4th Street. I might have once eaten at Mortimer's at Lexington and 70th Street. There also use to be a deli at 86th street just west of Madison Avenue, where a roast beef sandwich and a pint of cream was $3. I was always drinking pint of cream trying to put on weight, since I only weighed about 135 pounds, when I lived in Manhattan. I have been part of a after dinner party at the new El Morocco at about east 54th street and 2nd Avenue, but I do not recall eating dinner, just drinks. In my teenage years, I went to Chemstrand Company Christmas parties at the Empire State building where my father had an office. I have eaten at the Chopping Block at Lexington Avenue and East 64th street and a Italian restaurant just south of there behind Bloomingdales and a breakfast restaurant nearby there too. I once went to a party at the Belgium restaurant on the north side of the Citibank Building at East 55th Street and Lexington Avenue. CIO

<888> 06/05/13 Wednesday 2:45 A.M. More recently about 20 years ago, I ate at the Elephant and Castle on Greenwich Street and 13th Street in Greenwich Village, and I also at the Town House Restaurants on East 58th Street between third and second Avenues. I have eaten at a lot of restaurants out here in the suburbs, because a friend whom did not work in the winters use to take me out frequently to dinner in this area, until he moved further out in the area about six years ago. CIO

<888> 06/05/13 Wednesday 2:40 A.M. I ate 6 ounces of Purdue grilled Italian chicken strips that I reheated one minute in a microwave proof container with lid in the microwave oven, and steamed broccoli crowns and baby carrots cut into quarters lengthwise and a ear of sweet corn on the cob with Smart Balance Spread and extra virgin olive oil and 12 ounces of mashed potatoes with Smart Balance spread and extra virgin olive oil and a dozen cherry tomatoes with a 12 ounce can of Canada Dry Ginger Ale and a cup of green tea with Truvia sweetener and Borden's lemon juice. <888> 06/05/13 Wednesday 12:15 A.M. When I had money to eat at a better restaurant, I would have a bacon cheeseburger and home fries at Daly's Daffodil at 59th street and First Avenue for about $4, or the same at Fry's, Churchill's or Melons on Third Avenue from about 70th Street to 73rd Street, and occasionally Fred would buy us an expensive dinners of Fettuccini Alfredo at the Isle of Capri at 59th Street and Third Avenue which cost about $7, or stuffed Dove Sole for $5 at the Spring Street Restaurant in Soho at Spring Street, or a vegetarian sandwich with avocado, cream cheese and sprouts on homemade brown bread for about $3 at the Front Porch restaurant in the West Village just west of 7th Avenue at around Charles Street, or a Bacon Cheese Burger with home fries at the Rivera Cafe at 7th Avenue and 9th street for about $3 or the same at the Buffalo road house at 7th Avenue just south of Christopher Street or Pete's Tavern just south of Grammery Park. Once when I had money, I ate at Texarkana, and I think a New York Strip steak cost about $13 in 1982, and as I recall it was just east of 6th Avenue at 9th street. I also ate inexpensively a few times at "Down on the Farm" in the west village and "Pearl's" in the east village. I also ate a few times of Peking Duck at the Waverly Inn on Waverly Street in the West Village and that cost about $13 and the Dutch Mill Tavern at Commerce and Barrow Street that cost about $7 for two pock chops with the trimmings. I recall once eating a $15 meal at Cafe Des Artists off Central Park West at 68th Street, but I can not recall I ate. I would usually drink a beer, a glass of white wine, or a spritzer for about a dollar. I also ate roast beef sandwiches for about $4 from the Carnegie deli at 6th Avenue and 57th street, and I think I once had a strawberry shortcake for about $7 at the Russian Tea Room. I also ate at the Mayfair restaurant about a dozen times at First Avenue and 54th street where two pork chops with the trimmings were about $9. I also ate a few times at the cafeteria at the Chase Plaza down on Wall Street, where a roast beef dinner was about $4 with the trimmings, but you have to know an employee of the building to get into it. I also ate once at the Union League club for a Taft School dinner, and I think it cost $20, and I recall once eating lunch downtown at a private club on Wall Street, where I was a guest. I also ate frequently at the C.B.S. cafeteria on West 57th Street, when I was an employee there from April 1973 through June 1973 at the Broadcast Center. I also would eat a cheese sandwich for about $2 at the basement cafeteria at the new CitiBank Center at 54th street and Lexington Avenue. I also ate frequently at the Brasserie at the Seagrams building at 54th street and Park Avenue where Eggs Benedict or Eggs Florentine with English Muffin and Home Fries and Coffee was about $5. Back in the 1960s, when I went to Manhattan, one could eat at a Tad's Steak house for $1.29 for a sirloin steak with baked potato. CIO

<888> 06/04/13 Tuesday 11:20 P.M. I threw out the garbage. I can not hear any traffic moving around on I-95 ConnDOT: CCTV# 4 Greenwich NB Exit 3 - Arch St. . I picked up the mail. I got my rent statement for June 2013 from the Greenwich Housing Authority. I will pay it in the morning when the Wells Fargo Bank opens on Havemayer Place at 9 A.M.. I said hello to two neighbors. I have been keeping a Republican Watch on this area for a long time. When I used Fred Mierers apartment at 420 East 49th in Manhattan from October 1973 to February 1975, I used to keep a close eye on Richard Nixon's town house on East 65th street not to mention the other neighbors in the area. The best place for the locals to eat in that area is P.J. Clarke's , but I rarely could afford that place; so I would eat roast beef dinners at the Metropolitan Museum on Tuesday nights for $6.95, light lunches of yogurt, apple and milk at www.rockefeller.edu for about $2, the Old Dutch Deli just south of 86th Street on 3rd Avenue for a roast beef sandwich and a pint of cream for about $3, and nearby Richard Nixon's Townhouse on Third Avenue Arthur Treacher's Fish & Chips (Washington D.C.) which also used to have a branch in Greenwich, Connecticut nearby where Wendy's is today. I also would buy liverwurst sandwiches for $2 from the deli just south of the A&P at 52nd Street and 2nd Avenue. Frequently I would have breakfast at the Greek restaurant at Beekman Place First Avenue and 50th street which would consist of two eggs over easy with English muffin and bacon and coffee and orange juice for about $3 and I would read the www.nytimes.com there which cost about 35 cents. Cigarettes back then were about $1.29 a package. However, New York City got to be so rich, they no longer want cheap residents anymore, so all of that is a long distant viewpoint from the old days. It cost about $2.15 to ride the train between Greenwich, Connecticut and Grand Central Station, and gasoline was about 50 cents a gallon or less. When in Greenwich Village, I would eat at a little restaurant at Greenwich Street near Charles street for about $3 for Eggs Florentine with English muffin and coffee, or David's Pot Belly on Christopher Street for about $3 for a cheese omelet, or the Pink Tea Cup for eggs, bacon and English muffin and coffee for about $3, or the Bagel for about the same price for the same items. There was also a cafeteria just north of the Whitney Museum on Madison Avenue, where one could get a meat loaf dinner with potatoes and vegetables and milk and coffee for about $4 and just north of the Daily News at 42nd Street and Third Avenue, there was the 24 hour automat where one could get a good meal for about $3. When I lived in Manhattan on West 74th Street from November 1980 to February 1982, I would get roast beef sandwiches on West 72nd Street from the deli there for about $3 or buy food at Gristedes or the Fairway Market nearby on Broadway, and there was a McDonalds near Lincoln Center. Also around Madison Avenue and 66th street, there use to be a little place, where one could get breakfast for about $3. A few times, when I could afford it, I bought a slice of pizza at Ray's Famous Pizza in Greenwich Village for about $1.25. There also was a Souvlaki Stand at University Place just north of 13th Street that sold a lamb souvlaki for about $1.29. There was a busy bar in the meat packing district that sold a cheese burger for about $2, but nobody ever ordered one, they were so busy drinking. Also in that area, there was the Empire Diner, where one could get breakfast for about $3. CIO

<888> 06/03/13 Monday 1:20 A.M. In the old days over 20 years ago before the internet, when I was on a night schedule, I used to go out to some of the local pubs after 11 P.M., and I would drink a www.perrier.com and chat with some of the locals and visitors in the area. However, the cost of traveling is too expensive, and it seems there is a younger crowd in the pubs whom do not feel like networking with older people. Since on a limited budget, I can not afford to eat in local restaurants, I lead a more solitary life at home. Manhattan is a distant memory away, and I would not even to know where to begin to try to network with people personally. I think the last time I went into Manhattan at night was the February after "911", and I dressed warmly; and I drove my old white 1976 Volvo sedan on a minus 20 degree Fahrenheit night into the City. I visited two pubs that I had visited previously, and I chatted with the doorman outside the Waldorf Astoria. I was wearing my dark green heavy wool hunting suit that fit me at the time with knee britches which I eventually outgrew. I recall there were a few other cold weather people moving around, but it was relatively quiet in midtown Manhattan. I am not too good at making small talk anymore, since I mostly talk about computer technology, which most people do not find too interesting. Although Byram or Greenwich, Connecticut is relatively close to Manhattan, the night people here are less visible than the night people in Manhattan. I guess the only places opened around here at night besides the gasoline stations in my area are the CVS store on West Putnam Avenue and the Glory Day diner a block and a half east of Greenwich Avenue on East Putnam Avenue. If there are any pubs opened in this area later at night in nearby Westchester County, I am unaware of them, since I have not drunk alcohol in almost 20 years. I think the last time I regularly drank wine was when I was in France for the Winter Olympics in Albertville, and that was just to relax amongst the massive amount of security there. I do keep alcohol around the apartment for any guests that might drop by, but with 13 computers in the apartment, I no longer have sofas. I only have the chairs around the dining table along with the chairs at the computers and the Ethan Allen recliner, and the legal chair, and the www.harvard.edu chair in the living room, so recently when I have had three different guests, I sat at my main eating place at the dining table, and the other guest sat at the Epox computer place at the dining table which is just to the right of the primary eating place. Thus I am not really setup for entertaining, and my living environment is more like a complex computer office now. CIO

I took the chicken and mashed potato dinner, and I put it on a separate microwave proof plate with microwave lid, and I heated it on one vegetable cycle of the General Electric Microwave oven. I put Smart Balance Spread and extra virgin olive oil on the mashed potatoes. I ate it all with a 12 ounce glass of Canada Dry Ginger Ale and a cup of green tea with Truvia sweetener and Borden's lemon juice. CIO

<888> 06/01/13 Saturday 11:40 P.M. I chatted with a relative after the last note. I threw out the garbage. I went out, and I went by the A&P Fresh, and I bought bananas for .79 a pound for $1.56 and two ears of corn on the cob for .25 each and .45 can return for $1.61 total. I then went by the Central Greenwich Post Office, and I mailed the $9 rebate information. I then went downtown, and I walked the entire length of Greenwich Avenue and the train station area. I sat out at various locations. They were having a disco party at Carriage House Motor Cars--Greenwich, CT | Pre Owned Ferrari, Aston Martin, Bentley, Rolls-Royce, Porsche, Mercedes-Benz, Lamborghini . I used the bathroom at Starbucks, and I chatted with a local. I stopped by CVS, and I bought a 8.4 ounce can of Edge shaving gel extra moisturizing for $3.49 and .22 tax for $3.71 total. I finished my walk, and I sat out for a while. I then went by the Stop and Shop, and I bought two prepared meals of two chicken legs with thighs and two scoops of mashed potatoes each meal for $2.99 each with a dollar off each with the manager's coupon for $1.99 each for $3.98 total. I then went by the Putnam Shell at 401 West Putnam Avenue, and I bought $9.02 of self service premium V-Power gasoline for $4.399 a gallon for 2.051 gallons at odometer reading of 72169 miles for 22.1 miles driving since Tuesday May 28, 2013 for 10.776 miles per gallon in mostly local traffic. <888> 07/28/13 Sunday 5:45 A.M. I found this email form to contact another old Dutch family about the Jimmy Eldert situation.

<http://www.nps.gov/hofr/contacts.htm> . I figured since Jimmy was raised around the upstate New York City reservoirs where it is suppose to rain all of the time, it would be better to have him living back in Syracuse, New York with the constant rain cloud over his head to keep the New York City water supply in constant supply. CIO

<888> 07/28/13 Sunday 5:10 A.M. I chatted with the Syracuse Police Department about Jim Eldert, and there was nothing they could do. When I first met Jim Eldert back in October 1973, Helen Kress Williams who was from Oyster Bay, Long Island who was the head trustee of Vassar College and Teddie Roosevelt's neighbor asked that we keep an eye on him. Teddie Roosevelt's grandson was in the CIA. I called up the Oyster Bay, Long Island Police Department at 1-516-573-6200, and they said they were busy; and there was nothing that they could do. Possibly since Jimmy worked for <http://www.sandringhamestate.co.uk/> at one time, I let one of my British contacts know the situation. CIO

<888> 07/28/13 Sunday 4:20 A.M. After the last note, I had a telephone call from <http://www.nationalhotel.com/contact-national/>, and the manager of the hotel did not know anything about the Jim Eldert case. The desk manager I chatted with earlier was from Eastern Europe. I chatted with a relative. I went to bed. I woke up, and I ate some almonds and a blueberry muffin. I woke up at 3 A.M., and I chatted with a relative. I ate breakfast of oatmeal with honey and milk and sliced banana, a toasted English muffin with olive oil, 12 ounces of 50% punch with 50% cold filtered water and vitamins and supplements, and a cup of coffee with milk and Splenda sweetener. I washed the breakfast dishes. I made my bed. I chatted with an out of town security agency.

From what I can piece together on the Jim Eldert case is more than likely in going to public places in Miami, Florida he was drugged a number of times which accounted for his bizarre behavior. The hotel where the last incident occurred was run by Eastern Europeans whom might have been KGB operatives, who probably did not like James Eldert's www.cia.gov contacts, so they set him up. People getting drugged in public places happens all over the world. Even when Starbucks first opened in Greenwich, Connecticut; I bought coffee there and put in cream from an opened pitcher that was probably drugged. They now use sealed containers for their cream. The best evidence that this is a frequent occurrence is that Truck Drivers with valuable cargo will only stop at Truck Stops. I was told that when current President Obama visited the Bushs at Kennebunkport recently, he would not take any food or drink from the Bushs, and he would only consume his own food and drink supplies I suppose the Secret Service brought with them. I think with the Russians heavily involved in Cuba, Miami has a lot of Russians and KGB operatives causing problems down there all of the time. However, we also have plenty of them here too. CIO <888> 07/27/13 Saturday 12:40 P.M. From what I can figure out, when www.gm.com went bankrupt, the Joy family fell on hard times. James Edward Eldert's maternal grandmother was from the Joy family in Nantucket, and this is what comes up on him recently.

<https://www.facebook.com/james.eldert>

There is a keep away order for James Eldert for this hotel in Miami <http://www.nationalhotel.com/contact-national/> . I called them up, but they are undergoing renovations. In the old days in Nantucket and Key West, when Jimmy was a neighbor, we all noticed that he was so near sighted that he never recognized anyone around him. Once his whole family were sitting around him on the beach in Nantucket, and he did not recognize anyone. They did let him drive the India House green Volkswagen station wagon, but I do not think India House on India Street in www.nantucket.net exists anymore. Basically Jimmy has a constant cloud of rain storms over his head all of the time. One could see sunny days for weeks on end, and when one sees Jimmy, things happen like 20 inches of rain in Key West. CIO

Possibly being around the Hollywood community in California, some actor or group of actors took advantage of his friends back east, and his family ended up bankrupt. I do know when I visited him a few times between 1978 and 1980 in Santa Cruz, California, he knew Peter Hubbard from Greenwich, Connecticut who was majoring law at U.C.L.A.. In the modern world that is why on my family's limited income, I try to stay private and stay out of trouble and avoid people I do not know. I chatted with an out of town security agency, and they said only to call if there is a crime to report, and they are not interested in intelligence. Jimmy did have www.cbs.com stationary with him, when I met up with him in Key West in the winter of 1978, but I never saw him around too much but at the yogurt stand on Duval Street. I will now install it on the Windows 8 partition. Radical viewing. Unfortunately the beaches in Greenwich, Connecticut do not have too much surf, it you get my drift. I have actually never surfed in my life, just watched it lots of times from the beach. I did once visit Nantucket around 1970 with a British surfer from Hawaii that showed a few of the locals his technique. When one drives up and down the beaches of California, one sees lots of surfers, so it is not a small group of people. CIO

I once thought about moving to Norwich, Vermont before I spent the summer in Nantucket in 1977, but when I left the island with a friend, I picked up my stored items in a barn in Norwich, Vermont; and I moved them to a family house in the Philadelphia area before returning to South Florida. When I was exploring around www.dartmouth.edu in the spring of 1977, I was told that although the rents for nice houses were not too high in that area, one had to work two jobs to afford one's heating oil bill in the winter, thus I decided to return to starving in South Florida virtually homeless, but with a good tan the following winter. For lunch they gave out box lunches, but I ate my baloney sandwiches that I brought with me, and the young Roosevelt look a like ate a big red apple, so I guess he was making investment decisions. I do have a Japanese connection in that when my father worked for Chemstrand which was part owned by www.monsanto.com and American Cyanamid, he did a lot of business with Mitsubishi Heavy Industries in their Textile division. Back in February 1975, when I threw the party in Manhattan for a couple of thousand people during a blizzard, I chatted with a Japanese fellow named Lance who was a concert pianist, and one of the other guests told me he was the grandson of the emperor of Japan. I was drinking Jack Daniels at the time, so I am not sure what I discussed. More than likely it was true, since there were hundreds of security people there. CIO

<888> 07/16/13 Tuesday 9:40 A.M. I called up the Canada Emergency telephone number at 1-613-996-8885, and they told me one needs a U.S.A. passport to visit Canada, and one can not just have a U.S.A. birth certificate. The last time I was in Toronto, Canada in December 1983, one did not need any sort of documentation. I spent about two weeks staying at the Anglican seminary at the University of Toronto. I did meet somebody there that looked like Queen Elizabeth's former brother in law Tony Snowden, and he gave me an Air Canada flight bag, and told me he worked for Air Canada's office in Toronto. When I first started going to Tod's Point in Greenwich around 1986 after three years here without a car, I used to walk around the beach with the same Air Canada flight bag, so all of the long time beach people here in Greenwich seem to think I am from Canada. The good news is that since I am not related Windfield Scott whom burned down the Canadian Parliament, I might be still welcome there since I am from a different branch of the Scottish branch of the Scott family. However, since on my maternal side, since my mother is 100% Dutch from Holland, Michigan, the British do not really trust me, since I am half Dutch, and the Dutch do not really trust me, since I am half Scottish, so I am stuck in America with all of the other mixed breed Europeans. However, technically Queen Elizabeth II's mother was Scottish and she is also part German, so I guess the old time British do not trust her either. CIO

<888> 07/16/13 Tuesday 8:45 A.M. I think enough time has passed, that I can tell about my good deed yesterday morning. When I was walking Greenwich Avenue yesterday morning between 5 A.M. and 7 A.M., there was not much going on besides the usual garbage men. I did notice an elderly couple walking two King Charles Spaniels. As I was walking down Greenwich Avenue by the parish house entrance for St. Mary's, I found a Samsung Cell phone. When I got down by the Greenwich Police Station, I looked at it, and it said "Touch to Activate". When I touched it, a messaging service came up with two names starting "sis.", so I assumed the cell phone probably belonged to a church nun or priest. I turned it at the desk at the Greenwich Police Station at around 6 A.M., and I told them what I knew. I am a bit familiar with the device, and it has remote tracking <http://www.samsungdive.com/aboutN/forwardGuideTracker.do> . When I got a home, I called a regular walker that goes to St. Mary's, and I told him what I knew. At 1 P.M., yesterday I called up St. Mary's <http://stmaryparishgreenwich.org/> at 1-203-869-9393, and I told them what I knew again. Again this morning at 12:30 A.M., I called up the Greenwich Police non emergency number at 1-203-622-8000, and I told them if it had not been picked up, they should check with the AT&T store on Greenwich Avenue about having them track it. The internet says some models of the Samsung cell phone are worth $700 to a $1000, so it is a valuable item.

<888> 08/31/13 Saturday 9:20 A.M.. I went out, and I went by the Putnam Shell Station at 401 West Putnam Avenue, and I bought $15.05 of self service premium V-Power gasoline for $4.649 a gallon for 3.238 gallons at odometer reading of 73015 miles for 38.1 miles driven since Friday August 23, 2013 for 11.767 miles per gallon in mostly local traffic. I then went downtown, and I walked the entire length of Greenwich Avenue and the train station area. I sat out at various locations. I used the bathroom at Starbucks. I toured CVS. After my walk, I sat out some more. There are three major construction projects on lower Greenwich Avenue. The old post office building is being remodeled into a Restoration Hardware store. At the bottom of Greenwich Avenue on the east side, they have framed in one three story building, and they still have to put the second three story building where the old Thatway patio used to be. Further up Greenwich Avenue on the west side of the street just south of where the China Pavilion restaurant used to be, they are building two more buildings. I next went by the A&P Fresh, and I bought a 13 ounce Marie Callender chicken parmesan dinner for $2.49, a 12 ounce Purdue Italian breaded chicken cutlets for $2.99 less a .75 off package coupon for $2.24, and two 16 ounce Ken's chunky blue cheese dressing for $2 each, and bananas for .79 a pound for .80 for $8.88 total. I then returned back to my apartment building, and I said "Good Morning" to a neighbor, and I put away the groceries. CIO

<888> 08/26/13 Monday 4:30 A.M.. When I came back from Daytona, Florida with John Bolton after spending the winter of 1979 starving down there around the Rockefeller clan eating four ounce cans of tomato paste with spaghetti noodles, I still had $50 in food stamps left, when I arrived at my mother's apartment in Byram, in the spring of 1979. I was sort of hungry, so I drove over to Bonjornos, and I bought a eight pound roast beef for about $35 with my remaining food stamps. I recall when my mother's boy friend showed up at the apartment, he looked sort of hungry after being in Florida, so maybe he finished off the roast beef, when John and I left for Nantucket. That spring in Nantucket nothing was going on, so after working for a couple of weeks doing carpentry, we left the island and returned to John's father house in Port Washington, Long Island, and around July and August of 1979, we lived in my mother's empty apartment after moving her to Kennebunkport, where her boy friend lived, after he had married her. When the lease ran out, I recall driving around the northeast, we drove to California, and then around December 1979 drove back east to Florida and back to Long Island for the rest of the winter of 1980. End of Scott's Notes week of 08/25/13

<888> 08/25/13 Sunday 9:00 A.M.. I ate a 19 ounce Stouffer's meat lasagna with grated parmesan and Romano cheese and a 12 ounce glass of Schweppes Ginger Ale. I will now send out my weekly notes. I will then take another nap. CIO

<888> 08/25/13 Sunday 7:50 A.M.. I chatted with a friend who was in the www.army.mil, so now the military knows that my internet weather station disappeared. Since I had the new overcoat delivered on Wednesday, possibly my neighbors remember seeing the overcoat box, and the internet weather station is yet to be delivered. We have a lot of old people in this retirement home whom are not too sharp with old age.

Sir Sean Connery. I saw him at the Hyatt Hotel when Margaret Thatcher spoke there. He was wearing a small silver star on his suit lapel.

<888> 08/25/13 Sunday 6:50 A.M.. I woke up at 6 A.M.. I went outside, and I chatted with a neighbor. The neighbor told me that the box addressed to me in the mail room with the internet weather station was there yesterday, so it looks like somebody in the building or with access to the building took the box between its delivery at 3:30 P.M., and when I checked around 6 P.M.. Theft of United States mail is a Federal Offence. I walked around the building. CIO

<888> 08/25/13 Sunday 3:00 A.M.. I will now take a nap. I can not go out for a walk, because I have a sore heel on my left foot from walking the entire length of Greenwich Avenue in new Key Largo boat shoes. If the group of volunteer night time exercise walkers can not survive without me, I suggest setting lose the local kids to observe downtown. They are a lot faster and more agile than myself, and they tend to have better vision. I once met the son of the owner of the <http://www.cheeca.com/> during the winter of 1977, when I was hitchhiking from Key West to Fort Lauderdale. He let me rest for a few hours in his tree house, since I was a bit exhausted from traveling. I left without saying good bye, since I worried about falling out of the tree house. If the internet weather station were taken, the person who took it obviously did not know what they were taking. Since although the device only cost $33 to purchase, one needs a Cable Modem which costs about $60 a month, and one has to subscribe to their service for the internet weather alerts, which is probably $50 to a $100 a year. Maybe some political conspirator does not like me knowing the weather, but with computers and internet access, I tend to know the weather before I go out anyway. I just want a device to wake me up in case there is a weather emergency, since the NOAA weather radio warning network does not work in this area. I always check the weather on the internet before going out. CIO <888> 08/25/13 Sunday 2:25 A.M.. I checked with the Greenwich Police non emergency number at 1-203-622-8000 , and there is no reason to file a report with them if Amazon will replace the missing item.

They have the cheapest cigarettes in the United States though. I once read that Henry Kissinger was an Army Buddy of Nelson Rockefeller http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nelson Rockefeller in Louisiana, but there is no mention of it in his bio, so maybe Nelson was not in the Army or they covered it up. There is no mention here http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Henry Kissinger about Henry Kissinger knowing Nelson Rockefeller in the Army. CIO

<888> 08/24/13 Saturday 9:50 P.M.. Amazon contacted me back from this form Where is my stuff? If it is lost or stolen, they will replace it. CIO

<888> 08/24/13 Saturday 9:35 P.M.. I ate breakfast of oatmeal with honey and milk and sliced banana, a toasted English muffin with olive oil, 12 ounces glass of 50% punch and 50% cold filtered water and vitamins and supplements, and a cup of coffee with milk and Splenda sweetener. I washed the breakfast dishes. I made my bed. I went back downstairs, and I chatted with neighbors. There is no sign of the package around. Tracking says the package had delivery conformation, so possibly since I was asleep, they did not actually deliver it, although a neighbor says it was delivered to the mail room. Possibly if the building custodian was around, he locked it away in the custodian's room until he could deliver it. I left a message for him at the Greenwich Housing Authority at 1-203-869-1138. I will not be going downtown to file a police report tonight, because the heel on my left foot is still hurting me. I will wait to see first if the package shows up around Monday afternoon. If it does not show up, I will contact Amazon about sending another one with secure delivery, and then I will file a police report. CIO

WD-3308U-WAL 4 Day Internet Powered Wireless Forecaster said it had been delivered in the mail room downstairs at 3:20 P.M. this afternoon. However, it was not there. I checked with a neighbor, and he told me had seen a brown box with my name on it along with packages for two other neighbors. I checked with other neighbors, and nobody knew anything else about it. I checked with the Greenwich Police twice, and I will go down there later on tonight to file a report. It has happened with a package for me here before, and it showed up outside my door the following day. The building custodian does not work on Saturdays, but possibly he was around and locked it away. CIO

<888> 08/23/13 Friday 7:00 A.M.. I threw out the garbage. I went by the Putnam Shell at 401 West Putnam Avenue, and I bought $12 of self service V-power premium gasoline for $4.549 a gallon with a dime a gallon off with my Stop and Shop card for 2.639 gallons at odometer reading of 72977 miles for 31.3 miles driving since Thursday August 15, 2013 for 11.861 miles per gallon in mostly local traffic. I noticed yesterday when I drove east of Greenwich Avenue to go to Joseph E. Banks in Cos Cob that the Shell Station across the street from Whole Foods is closed for renovation. It looks like they are replacing the fuel tanks. I then went by the ATM machine at the Chase Bank at 19 West Putnam Avenue. I next sat out for a while downtown enjoying the peace and quiet of the early morning hour. I did not walk, since my left heel is still bothering me. I then drove down by the waterfront on Steamboat Road. There were about a half dozen fishermen down there. They have the summer Port-O-Potty there. There is a nice yacht at the Delamar Hotel <http://www.thedelamar.com/> . Whether it goes anywhere with the price of fuel is not in my data base. It looks perfectly normal on Steamboat Road from my viewpoint. I then went by CVS at 644 West Putnam Avenue. I bought three 12 packs of www.coke.com for $11 and $1.80 can deposit, and buy one get one free of Lays 9 ounce sour cream and onion potato chips and salt and vinegar potato chips for $4.29 both, and buy one get one 50% off CVS 100 yard mint waxed dental floss for $2.99 and $1.49 and .98 tax for $22.55 total. <888> 08/21/13 Wednesday 5:00 A.M.. Actually to be technical, in the summer of 1971, when I worked as a COBOL software programmer at the Polaroid manufacturing facility on Interstate 128 in Waltham, Massachusetts, I was not a Polaroid employee. I was an independent contractor using IBM manuals to write a spread sheet for an www.ibm.com 360 main frame computer, they had leased at the facility. I also wrote some other smaller programs. As I recall, they were in a rush to get the spread sheet program working, so after a dismal week at work in late July 1971, somebody I randomly met in at Club Casablanca in Cambridge, Massachusetts where I use to hang out after work gave me a stimulant which I will not mention, and when I went to work the next day on a Friday at the end of the week, the programming problems all came together in my head and after reworking the flow chart and rewriting the program, it ran perfectly on the IBM 360. I was so burned out, that weekend, I drove down to Wood's Hole, and I caught the ferry to Martha's Vineyard, and the ferry to Chappaquiddick, and I camped out on the beach for two or three days in a northeaster storm at the end of Teddy Kennedy's famous bridge. I was lucky I was not run over by all of the jeep track I saw in the sand around my camping site. Later that fall, when I needed three course credit to graduate from Lake Forest College in June 1972, I compiled all of my summer of 1971 computer work together in a presentation, and I was given the three course credits. I had failed Quantum Mechanics in Calculus twice and a second semester of psychology course as I recall. However, although I did graduate from www.lfc.edu in the spring of 1972, after I returned from foreign study in Greece, and I got my diploma; I did not learn until around the spring of 1987, when I applied for a job in the legal department at www.ibm.com in White Plains, New York that in all of my years of job hunting Lake Forest College would never release my transcript which included my major in Economics, since I did not pay the additional $7,500 for the three course credits, which were not taken on the college campus but at Polaroid's facility, where I worked. Lake Forest College never did give me back the computer programming presentation that I presented them, so technically somebody else could have use it and the IBM manuals. As I recall the spread sheet program was about 1000 to 2000 punch cards. CIO

<888> 08/21/13 Wednesday 3:00 A.M.. I made up a super large Chef's salad. I got out my large plastic yellow popcorn bowl which holds about eight quarts. I put about 70% of a head of Cello iceberg lettuce ripped into small pieces in the bowl. I added 50 baby carrots cut into quarters lengthwise. I then added four pounds of plum and regular tomatoes cut into quarters or sixths. I next added seven diced Kosher dill pickle spears. I then added one large peeled and diced Bermuda red onion. Next I added 7 ounces of Caesar croutons. I then added two 6 ounce drained cans of extra large California black pitted olives. I then rinsed underneath cold water with lid on two 5 ounce cans of solid white albacore tuna fish and one 4.25 ounce can of crab meat, and I flaked it all, and I added it to the salad. I then added four slices of provolone cheese cut into half inch squares. I next added four ounces of grated parmesan and Romano cheese. I then seasoned the salad with celery salt, Old Bay Seasoning, oregano, and Italian seasoning. Since the mixing bowl was full, I put it all in a new large garbage bag, and I mixed it altogether thoroughly by hand. I then put it all back in the large popcorn bowl. I ate about one sixth of it with Hidden Valley Ranch dressing, Kraft Italian dressing, and extra virgin olive oil along with a 12 ounce glass of Schweppes Ginger Ale. I refrigerated the rest of the Chef's salad in the popcorn bowl in the large sealed plastic kitchen garbage bag for enjoyment for the rest of the week. CIO

It is now $106.80 with free shipping, so once can get it $31.75 cheaper. I use to dress up more properly around Greenwich, when I had more money instead of spending it all on computer equipment like I have done for the last 24 years. I was told by a friend that just got back from Seattle, Washington after a cruise to Alaska that at the private clubs they visited in the Seattle area, people dressed very informally, so I guess that is the Western style of dress or log cabin look. I called them up 1-800-285-2265 , and they could not refund the shipping price, but they gave me $17.80 back on the coat, so it only cost me $121.64 with shipping. CIO

<888> 08/19/13 Monday 6:55 A.M.. My left heel is still bothering me after nine days in a row of exercise walking on Greenwich Avenue. There are still a few younger people left in town whom can not afford to go away on vacation. Also I have seen a few seniors whom prefer not to travel. Some people have no place to go, so they just sit in Starbucks all day and surf the free internet. Since the Internet only costs about $40 to $60 a month, it would seem it would cost more to drive back and forth to Starbucks to use the free internet than, it would cost to have it at home. It would also seem that using the free internet at Starbucks or at the Greenwich Library would not give an individual as much of a chance to concentrate versus if they used it in their private homes. However, some people in the library probably do not feel like investing in computer equipment. Basically there is always somebody willing to take advantage of a free lunch. However, a lot of younger people travel frequently, so that group of people probably do use the free wireless when it is available in their travels. I have a weak bladder, so I do not drink coffee or other beverages, when I am downtown. Also as a cigarette smoke whom needs to quit sometime soon, I enjoy being somewhere, where I can sneak a cigarette. I also find the conditions of working the internet at Starbucks or the Greenwich Library elbow to elbow with other users a bit crowded like sitting on a subway, when in the comfort of my modest apartment, I have more room to relax and exercise my thoughts away from the Starbucks mentality. I do not tweet, since I run my own web site, I can post more than 140 words. Also since I know how to type, I can post a continual stream of information based on what I know versus, what people whom watch television know. Walter Cronkite at www.cbs.com use to say that a half hour broadcast on the CBS evening news is only two and a half columns of the New York Times, so if one reads information versus being read to, one gets more information, particularly if one knows where to look. Basically what I see here in Greenwich, Connecticut is different groups of local high school students fighting amongst each other after they leave the local high school. Since I have a different education background and experience, I do not share the same insights that they may have. CIO

I have walked a lot, since I started playing a lot of golf around 1957, so I have walked a lot for at least 56 years. However, one does wear out some times. I wore my new Key Largo boat shoes while walking this past evening, and my left heel was hurting after the walk. I guess I should continue with my Reebok walking sneakers and other better walking shoes. I guess since I still walk a bit, I will be continuing to walk a bit more as long as I am fit. I do have bad arthritis, so I do not walk on rainy or damp days. I will now send out my weekly notes. I will then shut down the primary work computer, and I will go to bed soon. CIO

The only problem with black overcoats, is that at night automobile traffic can not see one walking around, but I still have a good pair of eyes for watching out for traffic. Despite the fact that it is still summer, it tends to be cold here most of the year, so winter clothes sooner or later come in handy, which the local Florida and other southern visitors do not seem to realize in their yachting clothes. I then went by Putnam Shell at 401 West Putnam Avenue, and I bought $11.05 of self service V-Power gasoline for $4.649 a gallon for 2.376 gallons at odometer reading of 72945 miles for 25.4 miles driven since Wednesday August 7, 2013 for 10.691 miles per gallon in mostly local traffic. I then cleaned the outside Audi windows. I then went by CVS on West Putnam Avenue, but they do not carry a hose nozzle. I then returned home, and I picked up the mail. <888> 08/15/13 Thursday 2:30 A.M.. I loved the smell of fresh baked bread, and I can always sniff out bakeries at night. When I used to walk around Manhattan occasionally at night from 1973 until around 1999, I sniffed out a bakery on Seventh Avenue just below Christopher Street just south of the Buffalo Road House. They told me they baked all of the baked good for the Manhattan restaurants. When I used Fred's apartment at 420 East 49th street occasionally from October 1973 until February 1975, there was a bakery on the southeast corner of 49th Street and 2nd Avenue that use to get fresh croissants flown in on the Concorde every morning from Paris, France. Further uptown on the east side of First Avenue between 54th street and 55th street, there was a bakery; where I once saw John and Yoko Ono Lennon. When I lived on West 74th street, there was a Polish bakery on West 72nd street between Broadway and West End Avenue. When I was camping out in Nantucket in the summer of 1975, I used to work at the Nantucket bakery on Orange Street at night and the early morning hours. I learned the recipe for Portuguese bread was the same as the French bread recipe, but the loaves are shaped differently. I also worked at Henry's Bakery in the summer of 1977 on Steamboat Wharf in Nantucket at night and the early morning hours making their grinder rolls, donuts, and Portuguese bread. When I visited Washington D.C., around February 1983, I stayed at the Georgetown Inn, and there was a bakery next door that claimed they baked two million croissants everyday for the Washington D.C. public. I used to buy croissants at the St. Moritz bakery on Greenwich Avenue, until they got a bit too expensive. There use to a restaurant across from the movie theatre on Railroad Avenue here in Greenwich called Rue du Croissants, where I had a turkey croissant with Cliff Robertson and Dina Merrill on my first Christmas back in Greenwich in 1983. We also have a large commercial bakery in Byram, Connecticut which amongst other items makes Thomas' English muffins. They get their grain in large grain trucks from the Archer Daniel Midland Company in Decatur, Illinois. I have relatives in Kennebunkport, Maine whom have a neighbor that owns a large chain of commercial bakeries. On the west of the Byram River in Greenwich, Connecticut; there used to be a Baker's Union office also. I also used to know somebody that lived above a bakery in Irvington, New York about 22 years ago. However, he just did cooking shows on television in Nantucket and Key West, before working at the Chart House in Dobbs Ferry, New York. Since his family were in the gourmet meat business in Minnesota, I guess he enjoyed the roast beef at the Chart House in Dobbs Ferry, New York; which is not there anymore. Of course 16 ounce of roast beef there is now $34, when it used to be $13 <http://www.chart-house.com> . The last time I spoke with the individual, he told me he was going to Dental School at www.columbia.edu . I first me him, when I came off Nantucket in December 1983, and he was staying at the Swiss Hotel just west of the Waldorf. CIO

Also Internet Explorer 11 crashes, and it is caused by the Shockwave add-on, which I disabled, and then it runs fine. If one needs to watch Multimedia content, one can use the Firebox web browser with the Adobe Flash Player. However, all of this does not happen on Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview on the IBM ThinkCentre beta machine in front of the mahogany bureau in the living room, the last time I looked. It works just fine on the IBM machine. All old computers and laptops are not the same.

There are these older versions of Adobe Flash <http://helpx.adobe.com/flash-player/kb/archived-flash-player-versions.html#main> Archived Flash Player versions for developers , but the Adobe Flash files are write protected on the beta machine, so I can not remove them to try an older version, which would probably mean one can not also over write them too. I do know Internet Explorer 11 with Adobe Flash worked in the Windows 8.1 Consumer Preview released in early June 2013. CIO

I drank a 12 ounce glass of 50% Schweppes Ginger Ale and 50% punch. I went back to bed until just a few minutes ago, when I woke up at 11:20 A.M.. I guess I was tired and worn out from my week's activity. I probably have "sleep deprivation syndrome" from the old days in Florida, when I did not have a place to live, and I would sleep in my car or in the bushes or abandoned buildings. That was from the third week of September 1976 to January 1977 and from October 1977 until April 1978. When one does not have a place to live, one does not get a good night sleep, and ends up sleeping on the beach in Florida or elsewhere, and one feels like a zombie all of the time. Also the last time, I tried to live in Manhattan in December 1983, I spent a couple of weeks cat napping in the early morning hours at the East Side Airline Terminal, when I did not have a place to live, until I returned to Greenwich. One of the reasons nobody offered me hospitality is probably that word got around that I snore like a locomotive. Jim Eldert when he arrived in Key West, Florida in January 1977 put me up in a trailer next to the Boca Chica Naval Station, until we left in April 1977. John Bolton let me stay with him at the abandoned Casa Marina Hotel from January 1978 through April 1978. Also I was put up for a few days in the Bahamas by Richard Mercy in January 1978 at Paradise Island. Also when one has no money and is homeless one tends to be hungry for lack of food, and from September 1976 to April 1977, I went from 185 pounds to 125 pounds, but with less weight I was a good swimmer. However, being darkly tanned, they thought I was Puerto Rican, but I do not speak Spanish. I used to speak French. CIO

I cut it into four equal slices with the pizza cutter, and I refrigerated half in a Rubbermaid container, and I ate the other half with a 12 ounce glass of Schweppes Ginger Ale and a cup of green tea with Splenda sweetener and Stop and Shop lemon juice. <888> 08/05/13 Monday 10:20 P.M.. BCD Editor was not able to fix the Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview boot manager with Windows 7. I fixed the same way as mentioned yesterday in my notes. First I boot the Windows 7 DVD and select repair to put Windows 8.1 enterprise preview in the Windows 7 boot manager, and then I fix it further by booting the Windows 8.1 DVD and selecting repair, advanced, and then fixing the Windows 8.1 boot manger. However, now that both partitions boot and are activated, I can not back it up with Windows 7. I lose the Windows 8 manger when I restore the Windows 7 backup after installing and configuring the Windows 8.1 partition which I have to restore the Windows 7 backup, since installing Windows 8.1 brings up product activation on the Windows 7 partition, which I have known for a long time. CIO

<888> 08/05/13 Monday 9:20 P.M.. I chatted with a relative. I will try <http://visual-bcd-editor.en.softonic.com/> to fix the boot manager on the beta machine instead of the Win 7 and Win 8 DVD repair method, after I finish the backup shortly. Maybe that will permit backups with the fixed boot manager. CIO

<888> 08/05/13 Monday 8:55 P.M.. Good news, the backup is working. Thus I am backing up both partitions with the first partition Windows 7 backup program. If I had fixed the boot manager first as I did last night, it would not work. Thus there is a work around for two partition booting of Windows 7 and Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview. However, in reality once I have configured the beta machine, I never even use the machine, since there is no more beta work to do at this point. CIO

<888> 08/04/13 Sunday 10:35 P.M.. I chatted with a relative. When I repaired the boot manager on the beta machine, the Windows 7 backup would not work again. Since on a similar IBM ThinkCentre dual boot Windows 7 Windows 8 machine by the Ethan Allen recliner, the backup program does work, it would seem that there is a flaw in the Windows 8.1 preview that somehow when dual boot is enabled, the Windows 7 backup will not work. When it does not work, it says there is not enough room on the external hard drive, when there is plenty of room. I could restore the Windows 7 backup that I made on the beta machine, and then do a backup of both partitions, and then fix the boot manager, but it is not necessary to back up the beta partition from my viewpoint. CIO

<888> 08/04/13 Sunday 8:55 P.M.. On the IBM ThinkCentre beta computer, after the Windows Update on the backup restore, I went to back up the system to the Seagate Go Flex 2 TB external hard drive. The program showed that the second partition with Windows 8.1 preview was still on the system. I backed up the first partition. I am now doing another backup of the first partition to the Western Digital external hard drive. Instead of installing Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview, I will just restore the boot managers in the method mentioned below, and continue with Windows 8.1 Preview for now. However, the good news is that with the earlier Windows 7 partition restored, the backup program now works. CIO

<888> 08/04/13 Sunday 1:40 P.M.. I downloaded and burned to DVD Microsoft delivers to testers Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview . I will install it on the IBM ThinkCentre in front of the mahogany bureau in the living room, once I have it prepared for installation. I first have to restore its Windows 7 backup eliminating the Windows 8.1 preview, and then install the Windows 7 Updates. I then have to back it up again to the Seagate Go Flex external 2 TB hard drive. After I install the Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview, I have to restore the Windows 7 backup which will have product activation brought up on it from the Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview installation. I will then have to boot the Windows 7

DVD and to repair the boot manager and then I will have to use the Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview DVD advanced options to repair the Windows 8.1 boot manager, and then I will have to configure Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview. If the backup program works in either partition, I will then have to back it up to the Seagate Go Flex 2 TB external hard drive. Sometime during the process like when I am installing the Windows updates, I will shower and clean up. We have a lot of foreign visitors downtown whom I do not know how to communicate with, so there is no point going downtown, when the regular Greenwich residents are not around, and the weekday work staff is not working. The good news is for beta testers that the Microsoft delivers to testers Windows 8.1 Enterprise preview does not expire until January 14, 2014, when people will probably be mostly hibernating in this area. I will now shower and clean up, while I download and install Windows updates. <888> 08/03/13 Saturday 1:30 P.M. As a matter of political expedience, when I first graduated from www.lfc.edu in Lake Forest, Illinois, I stayed with a friend on their grandmother's estate in Lake Forest. The grandmother supposedly owned Morgan Stanley, and the friend knew Billy Morgan who was the www.amway.com sales person in Lake Forest, Illinois. He also produced Rolls Royce commercials, when he was not going to Lake Forest Academy, which he had to attend after running away from home as a kid, and attending www.yale.edu as a teenager, so he was a big kid. When I left the quaint town of Lake Forest to try to make money in Chicago, they were not very friendly to republicans. I lived with a college roommate who was a social worker for the Illinois Unemployment Commission in the Attorney General's Office. It was a small second floor apartment next to the Merchandise Mart, the Medina Masonic Temple, and near the 40 story www.ibm.com building and across the street from the Chicago Red Cross ambulance fleet, so it was a very noisy environment after the rural environment of Lake Forest. We found a better three room apartment at 31 East Elm Street near the Drake Hotel for $400 a month in a neighborhood where a relative of www.navistar.com also lived, but being a republican party member in Chicago, I could not get a good job. I worked briefly as a taxi cab drive, the day E. Howard Hunt's wife's plane dropped out the sky over Chicago and before Christmas Time at I. Magnum opening boxes of dresses. We quickly went bankrupt when a friend related to www.bbh.com tried to move in, and I returned back east to Boston driving through Buffalo to drop him off with a Mercedes Diesel sedan that I owed about $1,250 on to the Midwest Bank of Lake Forest. My father sold it pay off the debt, and around the first of the year in 1973, I moved in with my sister and her fiancée in the Manhattan Yorkville neighborhood of East 89th street to try to find a job, and my father gave me $5 a week to live on, which really was not enough money after making about $200 a week before that. I did see somebody that looked like the Duke of Windsor entering the Waldorf Towers in January 1973, when I was visiting there with Hurley Haywood who I had driven down to Florida with around September 1972, before visiting another roommate in St. Thomas and returning to Chicago. CIO

<888> 08/03/13 Saturday 10:35 A.M. Besides my English connections having a father from a Scottish family and my Dutch connections having a mother from a Dutch family. I also have a few German connections. When we lived in Decatur, Alabama before moving to Greenwich, Connecticut in 1961, my parents knew http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wernher\_von\_Braun who worked nearby at the Redstone Arsenal. When we moved to Greenwich, Connecticut, we knew the Warburg family who were from a German banking family. I did not learn the German language, but some of the teachers I knew taught German at the Taft School in Watertown, Connecticut. I knew a member of the Rothschild family who was in my class. In Boston, there were a number of Germans who taught at www.harvard.edu. In Lake Forest, Illinois while at www.lfc.edu, I would go to the local Mercedes Benz dealership regularly to get parts for the old Mercedes that I was restoring. Also a member of the German Kluge family was in my class. In Florence, Italy I had a German art teacher. In Illinois, I knew Hurley Haywood who raced Porsches and owned a Mercedes Benz and Porsche dealership in Jacksonville, Florida. In New York at Fred Von Mierers apartment, there were a lot of German visitors, and Fred claimed he had lived with the <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Krupp> family of Germany. There were also a lot of Mercedes Benz 600 limousines parked on Park Avenue. I also lived in the Yorkville section of Manhattan that has a lot of Germans and spent time around the meat packing section that had a lot of Germans. Out on Long Island, the family that I stayed with had been part of the Kaiser's consulate staff in New York City from before World War I. They even owned the first Mercedes Benz out on Long Island. In California, when I visited Laguna Beach, there were a lot of Lufthansa flight personnel. In December 1980, when I visited Frankfurt, Germany, I saw a lot of Germans. A friend out here in the Greenwich area had a German mother. When I went to Innsbruck in 1988, Austria we traveled through

Germany. I have driven a lot of German cars over the years, and I live near the German car dealerships here in Greenwich, Connecticut. I guess I have a German look, since my mother was from a Dutch family that lived on the German border as well as the Belgium border. I had a Dutch Uncle once who married into a German family that owned a brewery in Brooklyn also. I also met and know a German software engineer named Roger Schultz who was a friend of Nancy Rockefeller, and he was a software engineer for Schweppes, and he lived across the street from www.abb.com in Stamford, Connecticut on Long Ridge Road, and he did not worry too much about security if he is still alive, since he weighed somewhere around 600 pounds or more. <888> 08/02/13 Friday 5:45 P.M. I moved the Audi to its usual place. CIO

<888> 08/02/13 Friday 5:25 P.M. I took a Pyrex glass pie dish, and I put a couple of tablespoons of Smart Balance Spread in the center, and then I rubbed its bottom with a bit of extra virgin olive oil, and then I rinsed the filet of flounder underneath cold water, and I put it in the Pyrex pie dish, and I rubbed the top of the flounder with extra virgin olive oil, and then I poured about a quarter of a cup of Stop and Shop lemon juice over the flounder into the dish, and I seasoned the flounder with Old Bay Seasoning and Italian seasoning, and I put it on a raised rack in the Sharp convection over at 325 degrees Fahrenheit for 20 minutes. The Sharp convection over quit working almost immediately, but I was able to get it going by connecting its extension cord directly into the outlet, and pressing the clear button and resetting the clock time, but it took a while of trying to do it. However, on the second try, it worked. I ate the flounder with its juices on a dinner plate with the reheated spicy potato wedges and 20% of the Chef's salad I made yesterday with the same dressing and a 12 ounce glass of Schweppes Ginger Ale and a cup of green tea with Splenda sweetener and Stop and Shop lemon juice. I checked the mail a couple of times, but it had not arrived. CIO

<888> 08/02/13 Friday 3:40 P.M. I ordered for $19.75 with free shipping FREE SHIPPING - 10 EURO COINCARD 2013 NETHERLANDS * WILLEM ALEXANDER * for a 100% Dutch relative. CIO

<888> 08/02/13 Friday 3:20 P.M. I went downtown, and I walked the entire length of Greenwich Avenue and the train station area. I chatted with two locals. I played an Ace's High scratch card for a dollar at the Greenwich Cigar store, and I won two dollars for a dollar profit. I was told the new Canadian owner of Saks Fifth Avenue lives here in Greenwich. I toured CVS, and I used the bathroom. I chatted with the Chase Bank at the top of Greenwich Avenue to see if they had any Dutch coins with the Dutch King on them Members of the Royal Dutch House , but they do not. They said I should go to a coin store. I suppose one could order them off the internet

http://www.coincommunity.com/forum/topic.asp?TOPIC\_ID=147799 and FREE SHIPPING - 10 EURO COINCARD 2013 NETHERLANDS * WILLEM ALEXANDER * . I stopped by <http://www.jackwills.com/en-us/home> , and I shot the breeze. After my walk, I went by the Stop and Shop. I bought a six pack of Fiber One English muffins for $1.99, a prepared spicy potato wedges for $1.64 with a dollar off manager's coupon for .64, and filet of previously frozen flounder for $5.99 a pound for $2.34 for $4.97 total. I then returned home, and I chatted with neighbors. CIO

<888> 08/02/13 Friday 11:15 A.M. I called up the Greenwich Police Department non emergency number at 1-203-622-8000 to let them know the NOAA weather radio emergency broadcasts do not work at this location. I put the old Oregon Scientific NOAA weather radio back in its box underneath the Panasonic Toughbook CF-29 laptop computer stand at the apartment entrance. It does not work either. The older Radio Shack NOAA weather radio in the bedroom does not work either. I would say it is safe to assume the NOAA weather radio signal does not work at this location. I will now shower and clean up and go downtown. CIO

<888> 08/02/13 Friday 10:50 A.M. I setup the Midland NOAA weather radio on the white bookcase at the kitchen entrance. I set it to receive alerts from Fairfield, Westchester, New Haven, Bronx, New York City, Nassau, and Suffolk counties. I hooked up the external wire antenna to it also. However, it only gets static, and it does not receive any of NOAA weather information. I will leave it on in case there is the possibility of receiving alerts. I also put three AA alkaline batteries in it. CIO

<888> 08/02/13 Friday 9:25 A.M. I ate breakfast of oatmeal with honey and milk and sliced banana, a toasted English muffin with olive oil, 12 ounces of 50% punch with 50% cold filtered water and vitamins and supplements, and a cup of coffee with milk and Splenda sweetener. I washed the breakfast dishes. I made my bed.

I guess Scottish Rules apply in Greenwich, Connecticut, since we have so many golf courses.

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 9:00 P.M. I reheated and ate the chicken and mashed potato dinner with Smart Balance Spread and extra virgin olive oil on the mashed potatoes and 20% of the Chef's salad I made today with the same dressings and a 12 ounce glass of Schweppes Ginger Ale. I will now shut down the primary work computer, and I will go to bed soon. CIO

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 8:15 P.M. I chatted with a relative and a friend. CIO

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 7:15 P.M. I ordered 80 ounces of Peter Stokkebye Turkish Pipe Tobacco for $1.37 an ounce for $109.83 total with free shipping.

I ordered 10 cartons of Premier Light 100's Cigarette Tubes 5 Boxes 1000 Tubes filtered tubes RYO for $30.30 and $7.05 shipping for $37.35 total. CIO

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 6:30 P.M. I woke up at 4 P.M.. I ate two scoops of coffee ice cream. I chatted with a friend. I went out, and I went by CVS on Greenwich Avenue. From across from the rear photo department, I bought a <https://midlandusa.com/weather-radios/product/wr-120/> for $39.99 less a 30% discount CVS online coupon to my CVS card for $11 off less another CVS $5 off $15 coupon for $23.99 and $1.52 tax for $25.51 total. I then went further downtown, and I sat out for a while. I walked over to Zen Stationary, and I played an Ace's High scratch card for a dollar, but I lost. I then returned home, and I picked up the mail. CIO

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 1:35 P.M. 'WWIII Queen's speech' script revealed

New antibiotic that attacks MRSA found in ocean microbe

Feathered dinosaurs had 'flight-ready' brains

I will now take a nap. CIO_

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 1:05 P.M. I made up a large Chef's salad with crab meat and tuna fish, and I ate 40% of it with Ken's Vidalia onion dressing and extra virgin olive oil and balsamic vinegar along with a 12 ounce glass of Schweppes Ginger Ale and a cup of green tea with Splenda sweetener and Stop and Shop lemon juice. CIO

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 11:55 A.M. I made 108 Premier Lights 100 MM filter Peter Stokkebye Turkish pipe tobacco cigarettes while watching Series 3 Episodes 4 of "Warehouse 13". All of the old debris is now cleared away from the old central Greenwich Fire House, where it used to be, so I guess they will be starting on the new construction there soon. On lower Greenwich Avenue on the east side where the new building is being built the northern half of it is all framed in, and they are starting the foundation work on the southern half. Further up the street on the west side where the two old buildings were taken down, they are starting on construction. Also just north of that where the Chinese restaurant used to be, they are working on renovating that building. <http://leaflinesalad.com/> is now opened at the top of Greenwich Avenue at the Pickwick Plaza. CIO

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 9:20 A.M. I will now shower and clean up. I will then make cigarettes. CIO

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 8:45 A.M. For August 2013, I paid my <http://optonline.net/> Digital Cable TV, Optimum Boost Plus, Optimum Voice, and my <http://www.cl-p.com/> electricity bill, and my <http://www.verizon.com/> local telephone bill. CIO

<888> 08/01/13 Thursday 7:55 A.M. After the last note, I threw out the garbage, and I mailed the Microsoft Money report in the mail room downstairs. I then went to bed. I woke up at 6:30 A.M.. I ate breakfast of oatmeal with honey and milk and sliced banana, a toasted English muffin with olive oil, 12 ounces of 50% punch with 50% cold filtered water and vitamins and supplements, and a cup of coffee with milk and Splenda sweetener. I washed the breakfast dishes. I made my bed. CIO
